SPOTLIGHT VERDICT This could be between the two previous hurdle winners, who are both trained by Gordon Elliott. DUNSY ROCK impressed at Fairyhouse in February and is preferred over Celtic Alliance, who made a winning debut in a 4yo maiden hurdle at Clonmel recently. The Nicky Henderson-trained Viscountess Nelson looks best of the rest.[Ben Hutton]

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT The step up in trip looks set to be a good move for the Paul Nicholls-trained A KING OF MAGIC and he can make a winning handicap debut. Joeybottles impressed at Bangor last month and is feared most ahead of Bel Ombre, who is also 1-1 in handicaps.[Ben Hutton]

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT The novice TIMEFORTOM has had a break since being pulled up at Newcastle and could be on a good mark for this handicap debut in view of his previous promise. Heard That has run well on both previous visits to Perth and may be the chief danger ahead of Letterston Lily, who returns from a long absence but is on a competitive mark. Soldier's Leap could be involved if the step up in trip isn't an issue.[Ben Hutton]

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Having continued in good form since winning at Windsor on New Year's Day, TOOTHLESS can get back on the scoresheet this afternoon. Slanagaibhgoleir has run some solid races during this first chasing campaign and is feared most back down in trip, ahead of the veteran Tommy's Oscar who drops back down in grade.[Ben Hutton]

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT A tricky race, featuring plenty of unexposed sorts, can go to the progressive FOURONEOHFEVER, who was useful on the Flat and got off the mark over hurdles in a Ludlow handicap last time. He is 9lb higher here and is just preferred to the unexposed Fakenham winner Mister Ursus and the 9yo A Different Kind, who was a good second at Doncaster last time.[Colin Russell]

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT There is no standout candidate in this staying chase in which the veteran C&D winner UPTOWN HARRY is taken to give another good account having been in decent form this season. Loulou Madrik and Sir Carnegie are two others who should go well.[Colin Russell]
