	Fullythermal 5 11-6	D McCain	Jonathan Burke	100-1	-	-	-
Well held in both his bumpers and this brother to a 3m5f chase winner is probably one for further down the line.
	Hay Max 5 11-6	C Longsdon	David Bass	14-1	-	51	101
Best run was the bumper debut at Bangor; beaten 26l+ in his subsequent races, the latest his hurdle debut at Sedgefield (2m4f, good).
	Jorah D'Alma 7 11-6t	F O'Brien	Ben Sutton (5)	10-1	100	102	111
Won a Ludlow bumper; 0-3 over hurdles but ran better with a tongue-tie added when a 15l third at Bangor (2m3f, good); probably needs to step up again and by some way to beat the best of these.
	Lightfingered Jack 7 11-6	A King	Tom Bellamy	11-2	113	86	114
Hasn't kicked on from his encouraging debut (2m4f, good to soft) and probably needs to better that form to win this; however, it's still days and this gelding has a very appealing jumps pedigree.
	Mr Finch 6 11-6	B Pauling	Ben Jones	5-2	109	93	116
Bought for £70,000 after his second in an Irish point; went from the front at Newbury last time (2m4f, good to soft) and ran fairly well behind two useful novices; this looks easier.
	Scottish Anthem 7 11-6	S Edmunds	Charlie Hammond	9-2	-	87	111
Had plenty of racing on the Flat and ran to a highly respectable level last year at up to 2m; runner-up in his second run over hurdles at Uttoxeter (good) last summer and could run well if fitness doesn't hold him back after a lengthy absence.
	Style De Folie 5 11-6tp ¹	J Snowden	Gavin Sheehan	100-1	-	12	73
50-1 when he finished a long way behind Testing Patience at Fontwell; cheekpieces added.
	Testing Patience 6 11-6	G & J Moore	Caolin Quinn	13-8	117	91	123
Going the right way judged on his second to an odds-on favourite at Fontwell (2m3f, good to soft) and has very solid claims.
	Vanderflier 6 11-6w p ¹	J & A J O'Neill	Jonjo O'Neill Jr	14-1	-	79	106
Bought for £155,000 after winning an Irish point; has finished weakly in both runs over hurdles (2m3f, heavy; 2m7f soft) but interesting that he's since had a wind operation.
	Virtuose D'Ainay 7 11-6	T Gallagher	Jack Quinlan	100-1	-	-	-
Had a long absence after finishing third in an Irish point and was pulled up in both runs over hurdles last year.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Testing Patience is the one they all have to beat but MR FINCH ran well for a long way in a stronger race than this at Newbury. Jorah d'Alma has each-way claims after shaping better in a tongue-tie at Bangor.[Alistair Jones]

Only stepped up to 3m in his last three races and went close in two of those; looked as though he'd win at Newbury last time (good to soft) only to get outbattled; the cheekpieces could be significant.
	Thank You Ma'Am 7 11-8tb	Ms G Nicholls	Miss Olive Nicholls (5)	5-1	124	125 130
Back hurdling the last twice after a brief stint over fences; the first time he'd worn these aids combined when a front-running third at Wetherby (3m, good; beaten 4.25l); exposed but firmly in the mix.
	Step Ahead 6 11-6t	K Bailey & M Nicholls	Ciaran Gethings	5-2	122	107 129
Second to the smart Moneygarrow here before winning a maiden at Cheltenham (2m4f, good); back on track with a 4l third over 2m5f at Kempton and going further this afternoon could help him on handicap debut; respected.
	Lipa K 8 11-5p	O Greenall & J Guerriero	Charlie Todd	4-1	121	127 128
Goes particularly well at Bangor but was runner-up at Aintree on final run in October (3m, good); however, a 3lb rise sees him on a career-high mark and he's been off a good while.
	Benign Dictator 9 11-4b	O Murphy	Tom Hutsby (10)	15-2	120	129 132
Career-best form came here in December when scoring over 3m2f (good to soft); hasn't really approached that level since, in cheekpieces and blinkers (new) the last twice.
	Everyonesgame 9 10-11	Andy Irvine	Caolin Quinn	25-1	113	118 127
Below par last time at Ascot but Kempton win in November was off only 4lb lower and then ran fairly well at Cheltenham; if back to that level of form then he wouldn't be far away.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT The application of cheekpieces could be key for J J MOON who looked as though he would win at Newbury before outbattled late on. Step Ahead might well improve for this longer trip on his handicap debut and he earns second preference ahead of Thank You Ma'am in what is a trappy handicap. 	Party Vibes 8 12-0	H Daly	David Bass	13-2	125	122	129
Has won two qualifiers en route to this final, beating a few of these at Cheltenham in December (2m4f, good to soft) and leading late on at Hereford 17 days ago (2m5f, good); remains on a competitive mark despite all that; respected.
	Ede'lffs Rock 8 11-11p	Kathy Turner	Mr Darren Andrews (7)	5-1	122	121	125
4-10 over fences and better than ever this season with front-running wins at Taunton (2m7f, good to soft/good); this track will suit her style but a collective 17lb rise for those wins could see her vulnerable.
	Minniemum 9 11-8	H Daly	Sam Twiston-Davies	20-1	119	127	132
8lb higher than for last year's convincing win in this race which was staged at Cheltenham; only subsequent win in six races came at the expense of just three rivals at Ludlow in November (3m1f, good); lacklustre in her last three starts and hard to support with any confidence.
	Theonewedreamof 7 11-5	D Skelton	Harry Skelton	6-4	116	125	131
Ex-Irish mare who has been a bit up and down for Dan Skelton but did run well at Leicesters last time (2m4f, good to soft) given one notable mistake that she made; won't mind returning to further and off this mark she's entitled to have a major say.
	Sunday Soldier 8 11-2p	D Killahena & G McPherson	Nick Slatter (3)	33-1	113	100	130
Multiple hurdle winner who is 0-5 over fences and has a bit to find with some of these; she also has to rebound from a modest effort at Chepstow and her stamina isn't guaranteed.
	Holetown 6 11-2	Miss V Williams	Charlie Deutsch	13-2	113	116	134
Dual chase winner in France and was seeing British fences for the first time when leading late on at Ludlow (2m4f, soft); unraced over this far but she wasn't stopping when a 3l third at Newbury (2m6f, good to soft) and she's back against her own sex now; good ground would be a first but provided that's suitable then should make presence felt.
	Realta Liath 7 11-0w	W Greatrex	Harry Bannister	12-1	111	125	133
Has to bounce back from a couple of modest runs (latest second was a remote one) but she has since undergone a wind operation; closely matched with Party Vibes and Theonewedreamof on their Cheltenham clash in December; possible.
	Kalista Love 6 11-0p ¹	T Symonds	Ben Poste	10-1	111	117	129
2-5 over fences, her latest success when seeing off two other finishers at Fakenham (2m5f, soft) in February; finished behind Holetown at Newbury (2m6f) and needs to improve for this longer trip or the application of cheekpieces.
	Kosasiempre 8 10-13p	S Edmunds	Charlie Hammond	8-1	110	114	129
Third to Minniemum in last year's final of this series; second run after wind surgery when winning over fences at Hereford in November and she added a 3m handicap hurdle last month at Newbury in first-time cheekpieces; solid chance off this mark.
	Lagonda 11 10-12b ¹	Miss V Williams	Shane Quinlan (3)	33-1	109	118	132
Blinkers are turned to after finishing tailed off a month ago and her previous thirds were no great advertisement for her prospects here; probably wants softer ground as well.
	Queens Wish 7 10-2	C & A Pogson	Lee Edwards	25-1	99	107	128
Ex-Skelton mare who is 1-8 for current yard and she's been plying her trade at a lower level; 2lb out of the weights; others much preferred.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT This final is usually staged at Cheltenham and was won last April by Minniemum who needs to pull her socks up if she's to make a successful defence. Genuine good ground would be a first for HOLETOWN but it was an excellent run on good to soft at Newbury last time and she's back against her own sex here. Last year's third Kosasiempre has a solid chance, along with Party Vibes and Theonewedreamof. [Alistair Jones]

Had Pismo Beach in third when winning last season's mares' final at Newbury (2m4f, good); has had another good campaign off her tough mark and went down narrowly last time at Chepstow (2m3f, soft) with Fern O'Brien claiming her 5lb; back up 1lb; each-way claims.
	Rockola Vogue 7 11-13p	D Killahena & G McPherson	David Bass	12-1	126	124	129
Picked up two handicaps in the autumn (2m3f/2m7f, good) but her progress has rather stalled since then and looks on a hard mark.
	Rula Bula 7 11-8	J & A J O'Neill	Jonjo O'Neill Jr	20-1	121	113	129
Last season started well but petered out and it might be happening again, as although it wasn't a bad run behind Cheltenham Festival heroine White Noise two starts back, Chepstow last time was underwhelming (well behind Siog Geal; soft ground no excuse).
	Greyval 7 11-5p ¹	F O'Brien	Jonathan Burke	12-1	118	114	131
Won this race last year (at Cheltenham) off today's mark; turned her back on chasing this winter and ran quite well over 3m at Kempton before finding soft ground too testing at Ludlow; plenty looks in her favour this time with cheekpieces added.
	Pretending 7 11-4p	Mrs L Wadham	Tom Cannon	6-1	117	116	131
Third to Greyval 12 months ago off the same mark; hadn't been at her best this season but came good at Market Rasen (2m4f, soft) and clearly capable of having some say in the outcome.
	Service Minimum 6 11-3	D Skelton	Harry Skelton	7-2	116	116	122
Would have found conditions too soft when seventh behind Pretending at Market Rasen and she then justified market confidence with a narrow win at Bangor (2m3f, good); she travelled much the best in that race but the handicapper went with an 11lb rise and that asks major questions in this loftier grade.
	Crazierthandaisy 7 11-2	N Henderson	Nico de Boinville	6-1	115	126	128
Looked a bit unlucky not to win at Uttoxeter last time (2m4f, good to soft) but wouldn't be certain to run as well again given her inconsistency; 5lb above the only mark she's defied in a handicap and a 7lb claimer was employed last time.
	Hard Dealt 6 11-1	H Daly	Sam Twiston-Davies	13-2	114	119	127
Has only won a Worcester novice and failed in six handicaps off lower marks, though was runner-up in four of those; clearly has nothing up her sleeve mark-wise but should still run well.
	Pismo Beach 6 11-1t	S Edmunds	Charlie Hammond	9-2	114	124	129
Placed for a second time in last month's Grade 2 mares' novices handicap at Newbury (good to soft), this season beating all bar the talented Charisma Cat who went on to run well in a Grade 1 at Aintree; bumped up 4lb for that but this mare will enjoy the good ground; chance.
	Audacious Annie 7 10-12p	J Snowden	Gavin Sheehan	12-1	111	127	129
First and second in her two previous visits here, latterly over this far in first-time cheekpieces in November; below best in her last two races (3m/2m4f) and appears to have little margin for error off this mark; absent since January.
	Keep On Cobbling 6 10-2	H Daly	Harry Bannister	20-1	101	102	122
Maiden winner who made a successful handicap debut at Sedgefield (2m5f, good) but hasn't advanced her form from there; however, soft ground perhaps not ideal the last time and this 6yo is bred to improve with her racing.
	Country Mouse 6 10-2p ¹	A Ralph	Liam Harrison	40-1	101	113	127
Point winner; the Ludlow third in December (2m5f novice; good to soft) offers some hope off this mark but lesser runs have followed, including her handicap debut when a 25-1 chance; cheekpieces added.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT It's a different day and a different track but GREYVAL (nap) won last year's final of this and she has plenty in her favour for a bold defence. Stablemate Siog Geal is feared most on the back of what has been a very solid campaign. Pismo Beach is another strong contender after her excellent run at Newbury.[Alistair Jones]

Confined to five races since winning a French bumper in 2021; encouraging third in a maiden hurdle on stable debut but pulled up in another next time and suffered same fate on chasing/handicap debut; now has much to prove, but he's down in grade with cheekpieces added and in a good yard.
	Forcetoreckonwith 7 11-7t	O Greenall & J Guerriero	Charlie Todd	9-4	93	96	104
Point winner who had her consistency rewarded with a 2.25l win at Newcastle (2m, good to soft) and the runner-up has since won at Haydock; a 7lb rise looks manageable.
	Zoeman 7 11-6	T George	Jonathan Burke	11-2	92	101	106
Switched to fences this season and produced three good runs in defeat (2m-2m4f) before flopping in first-time cheekpieces when made favourite at Huntingdon in early February; could be given another chance with that headgear swiftly removed.
	Kally Des Bruyeres 6 11-3t	D Dennis	Tom Bellamy	11-4	89	84	103
Dual hurdle winner who was having only his second run over fences when making all for a narrow success at Market Rasen (2m1f, good); up in grade off 5lb higher and there should be competition for the lead.
	Golden Millie 8 11-3h	D Horsford	Brendan Powell	12-1	89	63	102
Bumper winner; cut little ice over hurdles but there were positives to take from chase debut at Ffos Las (2m3f, good to soft) where she made up some ground from off the pace; still needs more and Lunar Ocean was ahead of her last time.
	Blackijo Dagrostis 7 10-10tp	M Sheppard	Stan Sheppard	12-1	82	95	108
13-race maiden; late mistake cost him dear at Taunton two runs back (2m, good) but Hereford was disappointing when behind Ballywood; others preferred.
	Ballywood 12 10-9tb	Ms G Howell	Tabitha Worsley	10-1	81	101	106
Nearly won for the first time in seven years at Huntingdon (2m, good) but he got an easy lead then and he was a spent force some way out at Hereford; wouldn't be the percentage call.
	Lunar Ocean 7 10-6p	B Aprahamian	Gavin Sheehan	7-1	78	101	106
Held up and was never that threatening when beaten just over 7l into fourth at Ffos Las (2m3f, good to soft); that's two pleasing enough runs since the visor went on and this 17-race maiden has each-way claims.
	Lone Soldier 8 10-2	C & A Pogson	Lee Edwards	16-1	74	91	105
A stumble after four out was no help at Market Rasen but did finish well held and he's now 0-9 over fences and 0-19 overall.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT After from a break, back on better ground and with headgear removed, ZOEMAN can be given another chance. Forcetoreckonwith has to be feared with the form of her last win franked and it wouldn't be a surprise should Ironica De Thaix turn a corner.[Alistair Jones]

Four handicap runs, winning the first of them, at Catterick (about 1m7f, good) on New Year's Day, and a good second to an improved winner at Musselburgh (2m4f, good to soft) in March; carries a big weight but respected now aiming lower.
	Son Of Hypnos 9 12-0	R Chapman	Mr Jack Stenhouse (7)	16-1	105	97	105
Hurdle/chase winner in Ireland but on a losing run now and, although he ran better when third of four finishers at Exeter recently than he had on his yard debut there, a few more pounds off his back wouldn't go amiss.
	Can't Resist It 7 12-0t	F O'Brien	Jack Hogan	13-2	105	86	107
His ten races have been spread thinly and he was returning from an absence when highly tried at Cheltenham in December; sights lowered at Exeter in March and he ran well from the front, albeit the stamina question for this longer trip still has a query against it now back in a handicap.
	Inion Tiogair 9 11-11b	G Harris	Joe Anderson (3)	9-2	102	78	106
Bumper winner in 2023 who didn't break her hurdle duck until February but she's now won three of her last four, all at Chepstow (about 2m3f; soft and good to soft); demolished her rivals last time and up a further 10lb but she's in such good form another win isn't out of the question.
	Snapius 7 11-11v	J Owen	Alex Chadwick (3)	11-2	102	89	109
Best effort for a while when beating two other finishers at Huntingdon (about 2m3f, good) last month; back up 6lb in a race that will take more winning but that recent success could have had a reviving effect.
	Bannister 9 11-10	N Kent	Charlie Hammond	12-1	101	97	109
Four hurdle wins in Britain, between July and September (2m-2m2f; good) but the latest was back in September 2024; had a going excuse (good to soft) in November but needs to be at full strength to win this back from break.
	Ballynorth 6 11-9h ¹	B Pauling	Ben Jones	16-1	100	60	96
Minor promise in Irish points and early hurdle runs but found wanting when pulled up on handicap debut at Newbury (about 2m4f, good to soft; 66-1) in March; first-time tongue-tie now replaced with a hood; downgraded today.
	Orange Diamond 8 11-9	T Ellis	Miss Gina Andrews	9-1	100	99	105
Three hurdle wins (2m4f; good and good to soft) in the middle of 2025, then made a winning return to fences at Market Rasen (3m) in December; not so effective on soft next time but has a weights chance back hurdling.
	Stung By Tariffs 5 11-8	H Daly	Sam Twiston-Davies	20-1	99	86	108
Signs of some ability in early hurdle runs but he was beaten and pulled up a long way out on handicap debut at Haydock (2m5f, good to soft) last month; still early days but no rush to support him this time.
	Mexican Stan 6 11-1t	A Ralph	Lee Edwards	25-1	92	75	100
Has had few chances but he called it a day on his handicap debut at Huntingdon in November and his finishing effort was sorely lacking at Sedgefield (2m1f, good to soft) in February; hard to fancy for now.
	Midnight View 6 10-13	M Sheppard	Stan Sheppard	16-1	90	77	106
In the frame in first two completions in handicaps (2m, good to soft and good) either side of Christmas but his Taunton run since was a distinct letdown and leaves him with plenty to prove at present.
	Pottersjetamay 7 10-9t	M Crawley	Jack Quinlan	10-1	86	97	109
Maiden over hurdles and fences; two good efforts in small-field Fakenham chases last year but his placed form over hurdles since back from a break suggest he'll be pushed to get off the mark today.
	Major Major 6 10-3tb	C Woods	James Best	50-1	80	86	108
Three Flat wins but no joy over hurdles so far, including in two handicaps; refitted blinkers replace cheekpieces; best watched.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT The handicapper has dug his claws in with a 10lb rise for INION TIOGAIR's latest win at Chepstow but she found new reserves for an impressive win and may be up to the task. Topweight Killycarn can be the main danger after his stout effort in a higher grade at Musselburgh, while Orange Diamond, Can't Resist It and Snapius are others to consider.[Emily Weber]

Latest third here was one of his better efforts last year but that was over 3m1f in November; now 0-32 and 9lb out of the weights.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT This looks open. The suggestion is SLEEPING SATELLITE who ran well in a higher grade last time and he's in first-time cheekpieces. Second choice Claim Du Brizais might be getting to grips with fences after a better run here month. Two To Tango is preferred of the others.[Alistair Jones]

GOOD

	Trainer	Jockey	SP	OR	TS	RPR
	Nevada Samba 5 11-10 A King Brother to two winners who was sent off at 4-1 when winning on last month's debut at Wincanton (1m7f, good to soft), beating rivals who had already shown promise; carries a 7lb penalty against some interesting opponents today but this bright prospect is respected nevertheless.	Tom Bellamy	4-1	-	-	104
	Beau Merle 5 11-3 F Bramley Beaten 26l when fourth of eight on debut at Wincanton (1m7f, good) three weeks ago; the runner-up has since won and he's open to improvement if settling better, but others arrive with more pressing claims.	Richie McLernon	12-1	-	-	100
	Colin's Legacy 6 11-3 F O'Brien 14-1, failed to settle and tailed off on debut at Southwell (2m, soft) last November; this half-brother to three winners is on different ground, with his trainer in fine form, but is probably still best watched.	Liam Harrison	33-1	-	-	66
	Iamtheidaho 6 11-3 D Killahena & G McPherson 27,000euros 3yo; fourth foal; half-brother to winners Bareback Jack (useful 1m7f/2m hurdle) and Palpatate (bumper); dam placed in bumpers/2m hurdles, out of bumper, 2m1f Flat and useful 2m4f/2m5f hurdle winner; stable had a bumper winner at Hexham last week and he's not ruled out on debut.	Nick Slatter (3)	14-1	-	-	-
	Jojo De Montreuil 5 11-3 R Hawker Newcomer; 11,000euros yearling; second foal; dam French 2m1f/2m2f hurdle winner, half-sister to two French winners out of French 2m hurdle/2m3f chase winner; others make greater appeal.	Harry Reed	33-1	-	-	-
	Lightsoutandaway 5 11-3 G & J Moore 11th foal; brother to three winners including Lord Leoso (6.5f-1m6f including Listed) and Look At Me (German Listed-placed 6f 2yo/7f), half-brother to six winners including Legionar (bumper and 2m3f-2m5f hurdle); the betting could be informative on debut; one of two newcomers for the yard.	Caoilin Quinn	7-1	-	-	-
	Lion Rose Sivola 5 11-3 J & A J O'Neill Point winner who has been runner-up on both bumper starts (good to soft/heavy), most recently at Kelso in February; leading claims.	Jonjo O'Neill Jr	100-30	-	-	118
	Muscadet 5 11-3 A King Seventh foal; half-brother to three winners including The Wounded Knee (useful 2m/3m hurdle) and Reflection Of You (bumper/3m hurdle); dam bumper and 2m/2m4f hurdle winner; trainer also saddles Wincanton winner Nevada Samba; interesting to note market strength on debut.	Philip Armson (3)	16-1	-	-	-
	Sano City 5 11-3 J Berry Third foal; half-brother to 1m4f/1m6f AW (RPR 77) and 2m4f hurdle (117) winner Your Band; dam 1m4f AW winner (RPR 71), half-sister to some classy sprinters; no surprise if he gives a good account on debut.	Jack Quinlan	16-1	-	-	-
	Tommy Tipa 5 11-3 Mrs S Bradstock First foal; dam 11.6f Flat (RPR 84) and 2m/2m1f hurdle (122) winner, from useful family (both codes); trainer has had just one runner in bumpers this season and that one made a winning rules debut in September; chance.	Ben Jones	16-1	-	-	-
	For A Moment 6 10-10t F O'Brien Point runner-up (3m, yielding) who also finished second on bumper debut at Ludlow (2m, good to soft) in December; better could have been expected at Huntingdon (2m, soft) next time but the Ludlow form reads well and she returns from a break with her trainer in fine form; a tongue-tie goes on.	Jonathan Burke	7-2	-	-	115
	Porth Mear 6 10-10 R Chapman Tailed off at 200-1 on last month's debut at Exeter (good to soft).	Mr Jack Stenhouse (7)	200-1	-	-	-
	Rue De Lota 6 10-10 T Gallagher Related to winners in France; nibbled at in the betting when 21l eighth of ten at 28-1 on debut at Ascot (1m7f, good) in February 2025; absent since and a watching brief may be the best option on her return.	Paddy Hanlon (5)	50-1	-	-	100

Fourth foal; dam unplaced in bumper and 2m3f-3m1f hurdles, half-sister to bumper and useful 2m1f-2m2f hurdle/chase winner Watcombe Heights, out of bumper and 2m5f/2m6f hurdle winner; trainer does well in bumpers and he could go well on debut.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT The mare FOR A MOMENT returns from a break with her trainer Fergal O'Brien firmly among the winners and the form of her bumper debut second at Ludlow two starts ago has worked out very well. She earns the vote ahead of two-time runner-up Lion Rose Sivola, with Wincanton winner Nevada Samba third choice. Lightsoutandaway and Norff N Sauff are interesting newcomers for Gary and Josh Moore, likewise The Drunken Sailer for Chris Gordon.[Ben Hutton]
