Betting forecast: 5/4 La Luna Artista, 4/1 Made U Blush, 7/1 Cloaks Of Gold, 10/1 Siorai, The Procrastinator, 12/1 Love Sonnet, Only One Blue, Queen Maeve, 40/1 Whitletts.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Being a consistent sort who ran creditably against males over C&D most recently, ONLY ONE BLUE holds particularly solid claims and is one half of a robust hand for Max Comley, who is also represented by the improving Cloaks Of Gold (second choice). Made U Blush and Queen Maeve give Dan Skelton a respectable hand, while La Luna Artista is the class angle and a couple of the others also have possibilities in a competitive opener.[Steve Boow]

Betting forecast: 7/2 Kadastral, 9/2 Cosmic Connection, 5/1 Minella Yoga, 10/1 Kocktail Bleu, Wilstar, 12/1 Secret Sniper, 14/1 Talakan, 16/1 Dutch Corner, Last Round, Stanners Glen, Way Of Stars, 20/1 Desertmore News, 25/1 Bespoke Tailor, 33/1 Ambiente Friendly, Legal Weapon, Love You Back, Race To Base, 40/1 Kapitein Kool.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Most of the runners are handicap newcomers, many of whom could prove capable of further progress. Improving COSMIC CONNECTION made a successful switch to handicap level last time and is probably still ahead of the assessor. Well-bred Wilstar is the narrow second choice, ahead of notable juvenile Minella Yoga and one who ties in with him, namely Secret Sniper. Skelton first string Kadastral has to be respected, while not many others can be comfortably ruled out in a deep handicap.[Steve Boow]

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Back on good ground, THISTLE ASK is taken to reverse Clarence House placings at Ascot with Jonbon who nevertheless commands respect as usual, despite a slight concern that he perhaps needs a stiffer test than this now. Solness, who looks set to dispute the pace with the selection, is the other main player.[Steve Boow]

Betting forecast: 4/1 Montregard, 9/2 Havaila, 5/1 In D'Or, 7/1 Ask Brewster, Road To Home, 12/1 Livin On Luco, Resplendent Grey, 14/1 Rock My Way, 16/1 Henry's Friend, Transmission, 20/1 Our Power, 25/1 Certainly Red, Invincible Nao, 66/1 Gabbys Cross.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Three of the market leaders were declared to contest last Saturday's Scottish National but did not do so when the ground turned heavy. This time it's the right-handed track which might inconvenience Ask Brewster, who makes plenty of appeal on other counts but lugged out to his left here in December. The vote therefore goes to MONTREGARD (nap) who stamped his authority on two Ascot handicaps this season in highly encouraging fashion. Road To Home also needs to prove his stamina but represents Willie Mullins and ran Ask Brewster close over 3m2f at Cheltenham. Havaila and In d'Or, who were not declared for the Scottish National, are among those disputing favouritism and Havaila can give the selection most to think about judged on the way he's come good in such splendid style for two wins in the last five weeks.[Richard Austen]

Harry Cobden OR128

Betting forecast: 7/2 Gnomon, 5/1 Across Earth, 6/1 Favour And Fortune, Surrey Lord, 13/2 Listentoyourheart, 10/1 Royal Way, 11/1 Trustintimes, 12/1 Fasol, No Ordinary Joe, 16/1 Tour Ovalie, 20/1 Lucky Manifest, 25/1 Aurigny Mill, 28/1 Last Kingdom, 33/1 Authorised Speed, 50/1 Dargiannini.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT The last race of the season can go to GNOMON. Toby Lawes's 5yo beat only three rivals when winning an Ascot maiden last month but he did so stylishly, and the form was given a good boost when the runner-up won a Ludlow handicap on Wednesday. Surrey Lord could still be well treated after his Kempton win on Boxing Day and is feared most. Favour And Fortune ran a big race at Aintree two weeks ago and is next on the list ahead of Across Earth, while the latter's long-absent stablemate Authorised Speed is well handicapped if he's still as good as he was.[Chris Wilson]
