	Chamonix 3 9-8t	J P O'Brien			Declan McDonogh			8-1	-	14	75
Son of Wootton Bassett cost 100,000euros as a yearling; weak in the betting on debut (20-1) when fifth of eight at the Curragh (1m1f, soft to heavy) three weeks ago; beaten only 3.75l and improvement can be expected.
	Coasting 3 9-8	D Marnane			Luke McAteer			7-1	-	-	76
Bated Breath gelding cost 20,000euros; went modest fourth behind stablemate and favourite Allsortz over 6f on debut at Dundalk a fortnight ago; bred to appreciate the step up in trip on turf debut; in the mix.
	Fallacy 3 9-8	A Slattery			Andrew Slattery			14-1	-	-	72
Bred for the AW but didn't show a whole pile on 1m Dundalk debut in October although bit better over same C&D when sixth of 14 in December; gelded; turf debut; stable in form.
	Nil Bua Gan Dua 3 9-8	J P O'Brien			J M Sheridan			2-1	101	87	93
Second runner for yard; promise when fourth on debut at the Curragh; not disgraced in 1m Leopardstown Group 2 on second start; ran to similar level when beaten 6l behind smart Ballydoyle colt in 1m1f Leopardstown Group 3; fair chance with sights lowered on return; holds Irish Derby entry.
	Oust 3 9-8	J Halley			Seamie Heffernan			12-1	-	-	72
Palace Pier colt cost 40,000euros; backed in from big prices (sent off 10-1) when 8l fourth of seven on 7f Dundalk debut in December; will need to improve significantly to take this.
	Roaming Coyote 3 9-8	K Coleman			W J Lee			50-1	-	19	44
Triple-figure odds and never a factor on 1m Curragh debut in October; safe to look elsewhere.
	Suspicious Mindz 3 9-8	Mrs J Harrington			Shane Foley			11-4	87	61	95
Best effort a close third in Listed heat at Tipperary (7.5f, good; dual Group 1 runner-up Brussels second); poor effort next time on soft at Roscommon; gelded ahead of 7f Dundalk maiden third in October; big player on return with drying ground in his favour.
	Tashakour 3 9-8	J Murtagh			Ben Coen			5-1	-	80	88
Made encouraging Curragh debut last July, staying on late over 7f; failed to improve over same C&D following month; best effort yet when runner-up to Ballydoyle colt at Navan (1m) on return last month but that was on heavy: has race-fitness on his side.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT The market should separate Joseph O'Brien's pair but Nil Bua Gan Dua looks first choice as he ran to a fair level in Group company last season and is rated 101. He might not have it all his own way though as SUSPICIOUS MINDZ is a big threat judged on his Tipperary third last term when right behind the classy Brussels and the prospect of decent ground is in his favour. Tashakour completes the shortlist. 	Dial Me In 3 9-10t ¹	J P O'Brien	Declan McDonogh	7-1	-	64	89
	Fourth in Naas barrier trial before successful track debut in 7f Leopardstown auction event (good) last summer, overcoming traffic problems to get up on post; ran below that level when beaten odds-on favourite at Killarney (1m, soft) in July; 282 days off; tongue-tied.
	Echo Of Faith 3 9-10b ¹	Mrs J Harrington	Shane Foley	14-1	81	84	83
	Left previous form behind when winning Roscommon maiden in August (7.5f, good), value for more as had to wait for a gap; weakened badly on AW debut at Dundalk in February; likely to come up short in this company; blinkers.
	Brownstown 3 9-5	G Cromwell	Gary Carroll	7-1	92	87	97
	Won Naas barrier trial last May; successful track debut at Leopardstown (7f, soft) in June; failed to make a major impact in good-class contests thereafter, on latest when midfield in the Goffs Million; entitled to go well at this level and fresh may be the time to catch her.
	Loch Gamhna 3 9-5	M Hassett	Seamie Heffernan	16-1	85	52	85
	Nondescript run at Naas on debut last September; promising third at the Curragh following month (soft to heavy; form worked out well); perhaps needed the run when below-par at the Curragh last month.
	Star Strewn 3 9-5ht	A McGuinness	Adam Caffrey	16-1	82	-	91
	Promise in two Dundalk runs for Cormac Farrell; impressive winning debut for this yard at Dundalk (7f) in February; finished last of eight when pitched into Listed company at Lingfield on latest; turf debut.
	The Publican's Son 3 9-5	J P O'Brien	J M Sheridan	8-11	102	87	108
	Belied 40-1 odds with strong-finishing second in Curragh Group 3 (6f, good to yielding) where he was the sole newcomer in the field; inexperience costly when in rear in the Middle Park; slowly away when respectable fifth in Leopardstown Group 3 on return 12 days ago; bred to get the mile and could be a class apart.
	Zia Zabel 3 9-5	Miss N Lupini	Wayne Lordan	8-1	-	73	85
	Made 200,000euros as a foal but only 100,000gns as a yearling; promising Curragh debut second but failed to build on that when favourite at Leopardstown; off the track 188 days.
	Sursum Corda 3 9-0	D Geary	Chris Hayes	25-1	-	47	80
	Not disgraced despite finishing last of six at Leopardstown (sent off 150-1), beaten 7l in a good contest, but can only be watched; 343 days off.
	Why Wyoming 3 8-11	K Coleman	Rory Cleary	50-1	-	-	-
	Intello filly; 17,000euros yearling; half-sister to winners Dance Of Life (French 10.5f; RPR 89) and Agrimonia (Swiss 1m1f/1m2f); dam 5f 2yo winner (99); tough task on debut.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Clearly highly regarded, THE PUBLICAN'S SON can take advantage of his first venture outside of Group company and should be a class apart. Stablemate Dial Me In may be best equipped to follow him home, while Brownstown and Loch Gamhna are also respected. [Adrian Wall]

	Bucaneer's Spirit 5 10-2p	I Donoghue	Sam Coen (5)	8-1	60	70	64
	Won a Ballinrobe claimer last summer but underwhelming subsequently in handicaps for this yard; starts off this season off 14lb lower mark and able to drop in grade so not to be ruled out.
	Jasmine Affanalis 4 10-2h	D Marnane	Luke McAteer	12-1	60	51	62
	Ended last season on a positive note when winning at Tipperary (1m1f, yielding) off 57; two just okay AW runs on last month's return so much more needed on turf return.
	Shahada Ace 4 10-2	A Slattery	Andrew Slattery	9-1	60	42	63
	Ran away with a 7.5f Tipperary handicap last August but wasn't as good raised 13lb at Bellewstown next time; soft ground wasn't ideal on recent Gowran return so more expected back on better ground here.
	Land Of The Giants 4 10-1h	A McGuinness	Ronan Whelan	10-1	59	55	64
	Maiden who has done most of his racing at Dundalk; recent turf return (sixth to Launch Time at Leopardstown, beaten 3.25f) was a solid run but more required.
	Peig Sayers 5 10-0	Miss H McLoughlin	Ben Coen	25-1	58	59	67
	Very lightly raced 5yo absent since always trailing last of 22 on handicap debut at the Curragh in October; better ground may suit but very hard to be confident in.
	Launch Time 4 9-12p	C Hughes	Robbie Colgan	11-2	56	55	64
	Reappeared a fortnight ago to get off the mark over this trip at Leopardstown in first-time cheekpieces, defying a wide draw to win a shade snugly; 7lb rise a bit harsh but no surprise if he handled it.
	Johnny's Oasis 4 9-11v	A McGuinness	Adam Caffrey	12-1	55	63	62
	Dual Dundalk AW winner is 0-8 on turf and recent AW form none too encouraging for this turf return; wide draw a negative.
	Tero D'Rosa 4 9-11	R O'Sullivan	Shane Foley	12-1	55	32	61
	Maiden showed encouraging signs on AW last November over 1m2f; potential improver back on turf if handling this shorter trip.
	Notforalongtime 9 9-8b	L Hourigan	Rory Mulligan (5)	15-2	52	48	67
	Recorded his ninth AW win over 1m in November but held off late on same surface; runner-up in this race last year off 7lb higher so demands plenty of respect.
	Nibras Rainbow 6 9-4b	P W Flynn	Leigh Roche	16-1	48	50	65
	Four career wins include at Dundalk last November for Gavin Cromwell; joined new yard since last run in January and may just need this.
	Brosna Green 4 9-2	J Murray	Seamie Heffernan	25-1	46	30	65
	No success in 17 starts, most at Dundalk; first turf run since last August and of limited appeal.
	Reponse Finale 4 9-2	Liam Casey	Alan Casey (7)	20-1	46	62	63
	One of her better efforts came here last September when third over 6f; subsequent AW form not at same level; absent since September and may need this.
	River Derwent 8 9-1v	T Coyle	James Ryan	14-1	45	60	62
	Three-time AW winner and last of two turf wins came in Roscommon handicap nearly two years ago (off 61); AW form over the winter wasn't bad so can't be ruled out.
	Yorkshire Myth 4 9-1b ¹	R Burns	Nicola Burns (5)	16-1	45	49	61
	Maiden produced his best effort on final start for the Easterbys when second over 9.5f at Wolverhampton in October off this mark; ran no sort of race on yard debut off a harsh mark of 60 at Dundalk in January; blinkers added now and back down to a realistic mark.
	Hale Bopp 8 8-10	R Donohoe	Patrick McGettigan (5)	14-1	40	42	65
	Both turf wins came at this trip on a sound surface; on a long losing run (over 9f off Launch Time at Leopardstown on latest) and down to basement mark for the first time.

Swiss Army Officer 11 8-10 K Coleman Julian Pietropaolo (7) 10-1 40 56 64
Three career wins include over C&D way back; hasn't won in nearly three years but good second on final start last year at Killarney in October when 8lb out of the weights; hard to assess but on a nice mark and good draw.

He's Holding Court 3 8-7 A Slattery Jamie Powell 16-1 51 25 59
Three Dundalk runs over the winter before handicap/turf debut back in trip at Naas last month, showing up for long way before dropping out; up in trip here and 2lb out of handicap.

She's On The Ball 3 8-7 L Hourigan Alan Persse (5) 20-1 51 34 57
No impact in a fillies' maiden for Clive Cox last year and hasn't shown much in two runs for current yard this year; handicap debutante is 4lb wrong and yard have a more likely contender in Notforalongtime.

Magna Gee Gee 4 10-1 P J Flynn 59 47 65
First reserve; AW winner in Britain (9.5f); okay form for current yard on AW at end of last year and no disgrace in recent turf return; drop in trip here may not be in his favour though.

Oxford Circus 4 9-12p¹ D Hogan J M Sheridan 56 - 64
Second reserve; narrow winner of a 6f Dundalk maiden in February but disqualified due to a technicality; okay run on latest of two handicap runs since over same C&D; cheekpieces added for turf debut and interesting if getting a run.

My Girl Robyn 4 8-11 A Slattery 41 48 66
Third reserve; lots to find with Launch Time on recent turf handicap debut at Leopardstown.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Not too many of these make much appeal, an exception being recent Leopardstown winner LAUNCH TIME, who could still have more to offer from a 7lb higher mark. Last year's runner-up Notforalongtime has to be respected off a lower mark, while Shahada Ace could improve back on better ground. [Alan Hewison]

	Big Dispute 7 10-7	K Coleman	Robbie Colgan	20-1	-	-	-
Rated 104 over hurdles; debut Killarney bumper winner in 2023; hit the frame last three maiden hurdles in 2025; Flat debut for Kevin Coleman; market will guide.
	Cut The Rope 7 10-7	E & P Harty	Jamie Powell	10-1	-	43	66
Bumper winner; 0-12 over hurdles and rated 112; solid run on the Flat when sixth of 23 at the Curragh in November (1m4f, heavy); this trip may be on the sharp side but each-way possibilities.
	Eternal Echo 5 10-7	D O'Sullivan	Donagh O'Connor	20-1	-	60	65
Bumper winner and third at Clonmel (9.5f) on sole Flat start for Gordon Elliott but has struggled in three starts for this yard, including on Flat 15 days ago at Gowran.
	Miners Cabin 4 10-7	K Coleman	Leigh Roche	66-1	-	-	48
Second runner for yard; soundly beaten both runs over hurdles and similar story in two tries on Flat; hard to fancy.
	Musical Master 4 10-7	J Hurley	Killian Leonard	100-1	-	-	22
Sent off at odds of 50-1 for 9.5f Gowran debut this month and was never involved; will need more time.
	The Rock Factor 4 10-7	E Mullins	Ronan Whelan	33-1	-	28	40
Change of emphasis after Naas bumper run in January; solid Flat pedigree but only modest late headway when 18l behind the winner at Navan (1m) last month; this trip should at least help.
	Almazann 3 9-5	D Weld	Chris Hayes	5-1	-	-	-
Fifth foal; half-brother to 1m2f winner Alazeyna (RPR 93); dam 1m4f winner (inc Listed; 110), half-sister to 1m6f/2m4f Group 1 winner Alandi and 1m4f Listed winner Aliyfa, out of 1m4f Listed winning sister to disqualified Oaks winner Aliysa; Irish Derby entry; shortlisted.
	Confused 3 9-5	Mrs J Harrington	Shane Foley	7-1	-	-	-
Calyx gelding; 52,000gns yearling; half-brother to Italian 8.7f 2yo winner Ancient Story; dam 1m2f winner (RPR 75), sister to 1m4f/13.5f winner Moon Daisy, half-sister to 7f 2yo Listed winner Mountain Bear; market the best guide.
	Enceladus 3 9-5	J P O'Brien	Declan McDonogh	9-2	-	61	70
Showed plenty of promise when third on his debut at Punchestown (1m1f, yielding to soft) before finishing third at Naas (1m, yielding) in rematch with Cape Cod who won Leopardstown handicap on return off 92 this month; holds Irish Derby entry and entitled to improve up in trip this season.
	Leeward 3 9-5	J Murtagh	Seamie Heffernan	50-1	-	-	38
Dwelt coming out of the stalls when tailed off at the Curragh (1m2f) on debut last month; stable second string on riding arrangements.
	Reynir 3 9-5	J Murtagh	Ben Coen	11-2	-	43	63
Siyouni colt is half-brother to the useful Reyenzi; sent off 100-30 for 9.5f debut at Gowran 15 days ago but all chance lost at the start with a slow break; yard won two of last five runnings of this race, including last year; has to be watched for market support.
	Silver Cuff 3 9-5	A Melia	Rory Cleary	80-1	-	-	38
Failed to beat a single rival home on his 1m2f Leopardstown debut nine days ago; leave out of calculations.
	Strike De Vega 3 9-5	A Oliver	Gary Carroll	25-1	-	-	-
Fifth foal; 44,000euros yearling; closely related to My Kurkum (Group-placed 1m AW 2yo/1m1f turf; RPR 93), half-brother to 6f AW 2yo winner; dam 9.5f/1m2f winner, half-sister to 1m2f Group 2 winner Shaman; watch.
	Theorist 3 9-5 ¹	J Bolger	Andrew Slattery	7-1	-	-	67
Left the impression he would be suited by a step up in trip when not beaten far twice over 1m at Dundalk last year; one to consider on his return in first-time tongue-tie; definite candidate on turf debut.

Trojan Fighter 3 9-5ht

P Twomey

W J Lee

3-1 - 73 73

Ulysses colt cost 67,000gns as a yearling; Irish Derby entry; weak in the betting late on when respectable fourth of 13 at Navan (1m2f, heavy) on debut this month; yard 33-94 at the track; obvious player in new headgear.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT A wide-open maiden. Of those with form in the book, Enceladus, Theorist and Trojan Fighter have shown enough to make the shortlist but the vote goes to REYNIR, a nicely bred colt who lost all chance at the start at Gowran on debut and is worth another chance. Sporting the same colours, any market support for Dermot Weld's Almazann could be significant. [Adrian Wall]

	Summer Is Tomorrow 3 9-12	J P O'Brien	Julian Pietropaolo (7)	9-2	95	92	97
Both wins last year came at 7f, in Down Royal maiden (good) and needed every yard when getting up late in Roscommon winners contest on soft, having previously finished third in very valuable Naas auction contest over inadequate 6f; didn't land a blow in Goffs Million (Curragh) final start and takes a step up in trip here on seasonal return from a yard in hot form; rider's claim negates his double penalty.
	Limestone 3 9-9½	J P O'Brien	J M Sheridan	13-8	98	85	97
Progressed nicely in each of three juvenile runs, bumping into smart Ballydoyle colts on first two before landing Listowel rated race in September, making all on heavy ground (1m); should relish middle-distances this year (Derby entered) and fitted with a tongue-tie for seasonal return.
	Mr Vettori 3 9-9	Mrs J Harrington	Shane Foley	7-2	91	56	95
Lope De Vega colt improved nicely in three runs at two, notably chasing home the high-class Hawk Mountain in Curragh maiden and final start outstayed long-time leader at Gowran in testing conditions, tending to hang right both occasions; Irish Derby entry looks the type to keep improving and considered.
	Port Ferdinand 3 9-9	A P O'Brien	Wayne Lordan	9-4	-	28	92
Camelot colt is out of Group 1-winning miler Amazing Maria; successful on only 2yo start, hampered and hanging badly but doing well under a considerate ride in getting up late in 7f Naas maiden on softish ground; dual Derby entry should appreciate this step up in trip and could be anything.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT A small turnout but a very interesting race in which cases for all four runners can be made, all making their seasonal return. Three of these hold Derby entries, slight preference at this moment in time is for LIMESTONE, whose yard is in excellent form and with whom Joey Sheridan has struck up a profitable partnership this season. Port Ferdinand is the least exposed and has to be respected, while Mr Vettori is another who should improve for this step up in trip. 	Defiantly 4 10-0	J P O'Brien	Declan McDonogh	9-1	98	68	99
Lightly raced 4yo didn't debut until June last year, winning Killarney auction maiden on second start; contested 1m6f Listed races both subsequent starts, staying on fourth at Leopardstown and never landed a blow when beaten 5.5l at Ascot in October; drops to handicap company for seasonal return and has to be respected.
	Dar Toungi 8 9-13	A Martin	Robbie Colgan	16-1	97	-	98
Decent performer in France, eight wins include in Listed company; never sighted on yard debut over an inadequate 1m at the Curragh early this month, more expected here at his optimum trip.
	Apercu 6 9-9b	A Oliver	W J Lee	13-2	93	84	97
All five wins over this trip including this race last year (off 88) and Curragh premier handicap month later; out of depth in stakes company afterwards but one to consider back in handicap company.
	Genealogy 4 9-7p ¹	D Hogan	J M Sheridan	14-1	91	87	96
Won over 1m for Aidan O'Brien at two; easily pick of three hurdle runs for this yard when second in Ascot handicap (soft), most recently never counted on Flat return in 1m6f Curragh conditions event early this month; cheekpieces now tried and back in trip on return to handicap company.
	Alphonse Le Grande 7 9-6t	A Martin	James Ryan	16-1	90	100	100
2024 Cesarewitch winner was winless in light campaign last year; absent since November and this trip on the short side for seasonal return.
	Iron Fist 4 9-6	Mrs J Harrington	Shane Foley	14-1	90	79	101
Two soft ground wins last term included 9.5f Clonmel handicap off 84; didn't count back at 1m on recent seasonal return at the Curragh but entitled to come on for that so don't rule out.
	Coeur D'Or 10 9-5tb ¹	D Weld	Chris Hayes	10-1	89	30	99
Four-time winner but not since Irish Cambridgeshire win of 2024; definite encouragement on second start back off reduced mark without quite staying this trip at Leopardstown; blinkers now replace visor and now 11lb below career-high mark but stamina remains a concern at this trip.
	Akecheta 6 9-4t	K Coleman	Luke McAteer	25-1	88	98	103
Gained second heavy ground win in conditions race at Gowran (7f) last September; yet to win a handicap, well held both starts this term at the Curragh (well-backed favourite for the Irish Lincoln on return), never counting over 1m2f latest; bit to prove now.
	Mano Chicago 4 9-2	J Murtagh	Ben Coen	10-1	86	67	99
Lightly raced maiden shaped well initially in 2yo maidens; missed his entire 3yo campaign and reappeared to chase home a clear winner in 9.5f Gowran maiden; entitled to come on for that although needs to in order to justify this rating on handicap debut.
	Westminster Moon 6 9-2t	A Martin	Wayne Lordan	25-1	86	78	99
Four-time winner in Poland at up to 1m4f and placed in German Group 1 and Italian Group 2 in 2024; not fired since joining current yard in seven starts, most recently quite valuable Curragh handicap early this month; plummeting mark so don't ignore and market worth a look.
	Bay Colony 4 9-1p	J Stack	Seamie Heffernan	9-2	85	82	95
Highly tried on occasions, sole win coming in 1m4f Limerick fillies' maiden a year ago; comeback run early this month was full of promise, staying on fourth (fifth won a Group 3 next time) of 18 behind a well handicapped winner over this trip at the Curragh; ideally wants 1m4f but on a nice mark and could well play a major role.
	Final Voyage 8 9-1	J Murtagh	Jessica Maye (7)	12-1	85	86	102
Seven-time winner, last win at Dundalk in February 2024 off 3lb higher; some good efforts last year, including over this trip on the AW, and creditable run in the circumstances (slowly away) at the Curragh on latest under today's rider; one to consider.
	Quatre Bras 5 9-1	R O'Brien	Reese Holohan (7)	13-2	85	70	101
Three-time AW winner (twice at 1m2f); out of form on turf last season but some good runs this term, good second over inadequate 7f at Naas (soft) and nine days ago at Leopardstown when coming late to dead-heat for fourth with Amplitude over this trip, having not had the clearest of runs; better ground here to suit and has to be on the shortlist with rider now claiming 7lb.
	Ben Lawers 4 8-13t	Mrs J Harrington	Keithen Kennedy (5)	14-1	83	69	103
Off the mark in 1m AW maiden at Dundalk in February and beaten under 2l in valuable Lingfield AW handicap early this month over same trip; barely gets 1m2f so potentially vulnerable back on the turf.

Gary Carroll

7-1 82 - 99

Rounded off last term in with emphatic win in 9.5f Gowran maiden (heavy) and similar level of form on second start back when dead-heating for fourth with Quatre Bras in Leopardstown handicap over this trip nine days ago; respected.

25-1 79 - 99

Seven-race maiden in Britain for Charlie Hills, runner-up in AW handicaps final two starts; never sighted on hurdles debut at Fairyhouse early this month, probably best watched for now.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Following a fine recent comeback run at the Curragh, BAY COLONY could be the one to side with here, even though she probably wants a bit further. Nothing separated Quatre Bras and Amplitude at Leopardstown but the former now has a valuable 7lb claimed and could emerge the main threat. Topweight Defiantly has to be respected dropped in grade, while Apercu and Mano Chicago are others to consider. [Alan Hewison]

	Trainer	Jockey	SP	OR	TS	RPR
	Yousaynothingatall 3 9-12p ¹	J P O'Brien	Declan McDonogh	9-4	78	61	74
	Sister to Irish Oaks second Wemighttakedlongway showed improved form on recent return when third in good-class Dundalk fillies' maiden (second has won since); cheekpieces added here for handicap debut off a potentially lenient mark.
	Honouramongthieves 3 9-9	K Coleman	Ben Coen	16-1	75	73	75
	Pick of three juvenile efforts when staying-on second in Killarney maiden over a mile in testing conditions; too keen and didn't get home over 1m2f on last month's Navan return so will need to settle better to see out this longer trip and others look better handicapped.
	Nod Of Approval 3 9-5	Mrs J Harrington	Shane Foley	13-2	71	78	77
	Promise in maidens and again on handicap debut at Leopardstown (1m) in October; comeback run here early this month over same trip was disappointing but half-brother to Irish Cesarewitch winner Puturhandstogether a potential improver now upped markedly in distance.
	Servare 3 9-5	A Slattery	Andrew Slattery	5-2	71	70	86
	Much-improved on last month's seasonal return when running away with 1m2f Navan handicap off 59 (second has run well since); up 12lb for that and goes further up in trip here in a better race.
	Pliny 3 8-13	N Meade	Adam Caffrey	10-1	65	81	85
	Lots to find with Servare on recent Navan run and one of the more exposed of these, albeit is down to a decent mark.
	Delusional 3 8-12	D McLoughlin	Nathan Crosse	16-1	64	57	76
	Runner-up on AW at Southwell on second run for Jack Channon; two runs for current yard have been ordinary, beaten 12l by Servare on last month's turf debut, having raced keenly; others preferred.
	Darius Dark 3 8-11	J Murtagh	Rory Mulligan (5)	6-1	63	50	69
	Half-brother to same yard's 1m6f Listed winner Floresta hasn't shown a whole lot in three qualifying maidens but likely improver stepped up markedly in trip here for handicap debut and yard going well.
	Sea Of Dubka 3 8-10	H De Bromhead	Wayne Lordan	8-1	62	32	78
	Handicap debut third at Dundalk (10.5f) recently was a definite step in the right direction and likely more to offer back on the turf if staying this longer trip.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Holding an Irish Oaks entry and a sister to an Irish Oaks runner-up, YOUSAYNOTHINGATALL (nap) is clearly expected to be a lot more than a 78-rated filly. She brings a good recent maiden run behind a pair of potentially smart types to the table and, in first-time cheekpieces, is taken to get off the mark. Recent Navan winner Servare has to be respected despite a 12lb rise, while the lightly-weighted Darius Dark is a likely improver now upped in trip for handicap debut. [Alan Hewison]
