 Canaria Queen 6 9-9p	T Easterby	Duran Fentiman	12-1	55	59	65
Three 5f wins on turf last summer; on a competitive mark and she should come on for her recent return to action at Pontefract; seems to handle most ground; one to consider.
 Golden Prosperity 7 9-9p	T Coyle & K Wood	David Nolan	12-1	55	54	64
Ran poorly at Thirsk on Saturday (6f) but he had earlier won a 5f handicap at Catterick in determined fashion; others appeal more.
 Opal Storm 6 9-9tp	B Rothwell	Faye McManoman	10-1	55	63	67
Produced late when winning a 5f handicap at Southwell three weeks ago; has the ability to defy a 3lb rise and she has run well over C&D in the past; one for the shortlist.
 Beerwah 4 9-9b	J & S Quinn	Jason Hart	8-1	55	61	66
Off the mark at the 14th attempt when landing a 5f handicap at Beverley last September (soft) and ran well for fourth of 14 at Musselburgh one month later (good Topspeed figure); could progress further this year and he has shown promise on good to firm.
 Trust Sergei 4 9-8	G Hanmer	Cieren Fallon	7-1	54	62	66
Progressive last spring, following a 5f AW win with a ready 6f win at this track (good to firm); mixed bag since then but his penultimate fourth at Wolverhampton was encouraging; failed to back it up ten days later but no doubt the ability is there and he's well handicapped now.
 Auntie Jo 4 9-7v	D O'Meara	Daniel Tudhope	10-1	53	45	63
Ready win in a first-time visor at Newcastle last month (5f); perfectly good efforts in defeat twice since, coming from well back having blown the start at Newcastle on Monday (6f); more to prove on turf but this should be run to suit.
 Thank The Lord 7 9-5v	G Harrison	Silvestre De Sousa	20-1	51	56	64
Ended 2025 with two placed efforts on AW and he lines up here off a 6lb lower mark than when second at Newcastle in December; that is a result of four lesser efforts though and he now has a point to prove.
 Masterclass 7 9-5b	P Midgley	Rhys Elliott (5)	8-1	51	64	67
Ended a losing run when the comfortable winner of a 5f handicap at Nottingham last May (5f, good to firm) off a 1lb higher mark; he was returning from a short break when fourth of 13 at Pontefract 17 days ago and that effort can be upgraded as he was wider than ideal as the field turned for home; each-way shout.
 Newyorkstateofmind 9 9-4p	Mrs R Carr	James Sullivan	14-1	50	63	66
Veteran with a better record on AW than turf; 5f on fast ground no problem for him and he has run well after an absence in the past (although not last year); good run wouldn't be a surprise but others appeal more for win purposes.
 Doralee 5 9-3	D & N Barron	William Pyle (3)	8-1	49	59	65
Won a 5f classified event at Redcar last summer; close third to Golden Prosperity at Catterick 16 days ago (5f, good), always prominent; needs a bit more if she's to come out on top in this competitive sprint.
 Vault Of Heaven 4 9-2h ¹	K Frost	Jack Mitchell	10-1	48	58	63
0-12 and well beaten at Newcastle when last seen in November; he was sent off favourite on that occasion and returns from a break off a 2lb lower mark; no doubt the ability is there to win races if the addition of a hood has a calming effect (often races too freely).
 Isla Bella 4 9-1tp	J Ramsden	Alex Jary (3)	12-1	47	27	67
Losing run stands at 17 but she has run some good races in defeat for Joey Ramsden and a strongly run race at this trip should see her to best effect; unraced on faster than good; each-way shout if the ground is no issue.
 Anglesey Lad 5 9-0	S Dixon	Kieran O'Neill	14-1	46	60	62
Still seeking his first win after 20 attempts but there have been several good runs along the way; recent return from a ten-month layoff should have sharpened him up and he holds each-way claims.
 No Gain 4 9-0tp	A Kirby	Pat Cosgrave	5-1	46	50	64
Tried over as far as 1m4f when trained by Martin Dunne; won a 7f event in Jersey last June; absent for 276 days prior to a close fourth at Wolverhampton last month (6f; first time in these retained accessories), an effort that can be marked up as she made a big move in the middle section of the race while racing on the outside of the field; dropping to 5f is new but a strongly run race at the trip could suit; suspicion a bigger effort is brewing.

Ziva's Star 4 9-0 S Whitaker Lewis Edmunds 40-1 46 55 61
0-17 and just one handicap run that makes her of interest, namely her close third at Ripon last July; absent for 139 days and others have more pressing claims.

Lil Wade 6 9-0v S Dixon Tyler Heard 50-1 46 - 61
Good runs have been few and far between since his Wolverhampton second in September 2024; easy enough to swerve.

Tilsworth Ony Ta 7 9-0 J Jenkins Jonny Peate 50-1 46 47 61
Five-time winner but he has been short of his best on AW this year and the return to turf made no difference at Bath 19 days ago; not a solid option.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Several possibles in an open race. Opal Storm, Beerwah, Vault Of Heaven and Isla Bella all come into the reckoning, while Masterclass (second choice) shaped well at Pontefract and is handicapped to win. The drop to 5f is an unknown for NO GAIN but she showed plenty of pace through the middle part of her stable debut last month and she is thoroughly unexposed as a sprinter.[Paul Smith]

 Born A Rebel 5 9-9t	P Owens	Jack Callan (3)	20-1	65	65	75
Can miss the break but scored twice last year, a 20-1 win at Newmarket (good to firm) in July supplemented by a Yarmouth (also 7f, good to soft) success in September; never dangerous on AW return in February but might do better this time.
 Yafaarr 4 9-9t	S England	George Wood	12-1	65	66	75
In decent nick on AW for this yard since August, in the frame all seven starts and scoring at Newcastle (1m) in October; looked rusty on his turf reappearance a fortnight ago but he's a candidate to build on that; first-time tongue-tie.
 Pianoforte 5 9-9	J Camacho	Daniel Tudhope	16-1	65	74	75
Got up late to win Bath novice (5f, good to firm) for Andrew Balding in June; 0-9 for this yard (majority 6f, turf/AW) and first-time cheekpieces (removed) didn't spark an improved effort last time; career-low mark and second go at this trip (first is easily excused) the straws to clutch at.
 Clasina 5 9-8	J Berry	NON-RUNNER		64	67	-
Attracted market interest on first go for John Berry and it was rewarded with a win at Yarmouth (7f, good to firm) in August; up 7lb and absent since so interesting to see how she goes in the market this time.
 Wrydcroft 4 9-8	Mrs P Sly	Rob Hornby	5-1	64	62	79
Won three of his last four, comprising two wins at Leicester (good to soft) and an AW success at Southwell (also 7f) on this month's comeback; big field no bother and he has to be of interest under a 3lb nudge.
 The New Bay Pearl 4 9-8w	S Whitaker	Lewis Edmunds	33-1	64	-	76
0-8 for Roger Varian but displayed clear ability on AW (tailed off on sole turf start) while also lacking consistency; sold for 5,000gns in December and wind surgery swiftly followed; market might help on this reappearance/stable debut.
 Sir David 4 9-8	N Tinkler	Rowan Scott	33-1	64	74	74
Came good for Stella Barclay with last-gasp win at Carlisle (7f, good) in August but signed off for that yard with big soft-ground defeat the following month; no immediate encouragement on stable debut a fortnight ago.
 Ziggy's Angel 4 9-8	R & P Fahey	Oisin Orr	12-1	64	44	76
Improved for the switch to handicaps when winning at Newcastle (7f) in September and bettered that form when third over 6f at Southwell (also AW) in November; had wind surgery before respectable comeback over latter C&D one month ago; unexposed on turf and worth a second look.
 Singoura 4 9-8	G Tutty	Jack Mitchell	14-1	64	71	74
1-2 (AW) as a juvenile and although winless last term her best efforts both came over C&D (good to firm); midfield finish (C&D, good to soft) after two-month break wasn't devoid of promise last time; interesting.
 Mecca's Symphony 4 9-8w	M Dods	Connor Beasley	14-1	64	41	74
Six-race maiden whose reappearance third over C&D (good to firm) contained promise on this card last year; just one run subsequently and she's been off since wind surgery in June; unexposed and drops in grade for this comeback; needs considering, particularly if gaining market traction.
 Finn Ironside 5 9-7t	I Furtado	Hollie Doyle	10-1	63	64	78
Made virtually all in big-field York handicap (good to firm) in 2024; C&D (good to soft; first-time tongue-tie) and AW (also 7f) winner last summer; lesser efforts followed until a firm step back in the right direction last time and returns to turf from a handy mark; respected.
 Pearly Squirrel 4 9-7	D Loughnane	Daniel Muscutt	9-1	63	72	76
C&D (good to firm; first-time cheekpieces) winner in July who also won 7f handicap (AW; no headgear) in March; missed the break (not for the first time) a fortnight ago but otherwise could have a say back on turf.
 Giant 6 9-7	I Williams	Joanna Mason	6-1	63	67	78
Three wins (7f/1m, all AW) and it was a good effort when third in Southwell series final (1m, AW) 17 days ago; having a rare foray on grass but did finish second in good-ground Chester handicap (6f) in September; not dismissed from his lower turf mark.
 Reginald Charles 6 9-6	G Oldroyd	P J McDonald	8-1	62	63	77
0-16 on turf but he went mighty close at Redcar (good) in October; narrow winner at Southwell (also 7f, AW) on next start in December and it was a good effort when third to Wrydcroft over latter C&D last time; that did come after another two-month break but he's a player if backing it up 17 days on.

Yehudi 4 9-4etb D M Loughnane Hope Regan (7)
0-16 (includes turf) but has gone close a couple of times on AW; wore this headgear combination when fourth at Wolverhampton (8.5f, AW) under Hope Regan three weeks ago.

25-1 60 55 77

Ey Up He's A Star 4 9-4 T Coyle & K Wood David Nolan
Won at Newcastle (AW) in September and it was a close third at Thirsk (also 7f, good) on his return to turf a fortnight ago; drawn on the wing but can travel smoothly and should be in the thick of it off the same mark.

9-2 60 71 78

Onemorenomore 6 9-4 P McBride Cieren Fallon
Good record here with three wins including a division of this (soft; acts on good/good to firm) in 2024; cashed in on reduced mark to open AW account over 7f in November and just 1lb higher on this return to turf after three months away; possibilities.

12-1 60 69 78

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Few of these can be ruled out. Wrydcroft (second choice) continues on the up but the selection is SINGOURA, who goes well here and can build on last month's run over C&D. Mecca's Symphony, Finn Ironside and Onemorenomore are just a few of many others in the picture.[Richard Russell]

 Balmoral Boy 3 9-7 Signs of ability in two runs at Newcastle this spring (1m/7f); likely to find life easier once handicapping.	N Tinkler	Faye McManoman	33-1	-	-	67
 Bunyola Bay 3 9-7 Finished third of eight, beaten 3l, when the well-backed favourite for a 6.5f maiden at Newbury last October (soft; winner has since finished fourth in the Greenham); could see his race out more strongly on the sounder surface; big player.	R Hannon	Sean Levey	3-1	-	31	77
 Celtic Chariot 3 9-7 Fetched 55,000gns as a foal and 45,000gns as a yearling but went through the ring for just 1,000gns last October; second foal; half-brother to Canadian 7f AW winner Vrana; dam French Listed-placed 6.5f 2yo winner (RPR 90); likely best watched on debut.	K Frost	Jack Mitchell	50-1	-	-	-
 Deported 3 9-7 Free-going sort; has shown a fair level of ability in his four starts and has the strongest form on offer; could do with settling better though and appears vulnerable to anything progressive.	O Sangster	Daniel Tudhope	3-1	78	-	83
 Glen Nevis 3 9-7 240,000gns yearling; second foal of an 8.6f/1m3f winner (including US; RPR 98), herself a half-sister to winners Gifts Of Gold (smart 1m1f-1m7f) and Dusky Queen (7f Listed); appealing pedigree and no surprise to see him play a part on debut.	Charlie Johnston	Jason Hart	5-1	-	-	-
 Moreedd 3 9-7 Top-class pedigree, closely related to three winners, notably Group 1 winner Benbatl (RPR 124) and a half-brother to three other winners including 1000 Guineas heroine Elmalka (113); dam a Grade/Group 1 winner over 1m2f (118); five of those six winning siblings were successful first time out; of obvious interest.	R Varian	Callum Rodriguez	5-4	-	-	-

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Bunyola Bay may well progress past the standard-setting Deported and rates a major player but the eye is drawn to MOREEDD's sparkling pedigree and he can make a successful debut. Glen Nevis is another newcomer to note.[Paul Smith]

	Silver State 3 10-1v	J Channon	Rose Dawes (5)	7-4	80	69	86
He made an instant impact once handicapping in a visor, winning over 8.6f at Wolverhampton in February and following up over 1m at Newcastle 11 days later; back on the up with an emphatic front-running success at Bath last week (1m, good to soft) and he is 2lb well in under a 6lb penalty; faster ground to contend with today but this will be his last chance in a Class 5 for a while and he has to be high on the list.
	Toastmaster 3 9-9tv	S & E Crisford	Harry Davies	3-1	74	-	86
Seeking his first win but he has run well in defeat in all three handicap starts (9.4f-1m3f); drops back to 1m today and he could still have a bit more to offer.
	Saxophonist 3 9-9	D O'Meara	Daniel Tudhope	9-1	74	29	79
Two third-place finishes last season, both over 7f on AW; bred to be useful and market support would look significant on this seasonal and handicap debut.
	Booziebrunch 3 9-8	S Woods	Daniel Muscutt	10-1	73	54	82
Stepped up on his 2yo efforts when finishing second to a handicap blot at Southwell three weeks ago (1m); should give his running but perhaps vulnerable to less-exposed sorts.
	Welbury 3 9-7	E Bethell	Callum Rodriguez	3-1	72	64	81
Well on top at the finish of a 1m novice at Southwell on his seasonal return five weeks ago; that was his first attempt at the trip and he moves into handicaps with potential and his stable going well.
	Tarmonbarry Kid 3 9-2	R & P Fahey	Oisín Orr	10-1	67	62	81
Promising debut at Chester last July (7f, good; form worked out); no progress in two 7f runs at Newcastle afterwards but he has been gelded prior to his handicap/seasonal debut and stepping up to 1m should suit; one to be interested in.
	Attention Seeker 3 8-10	B Ellison	Cam Hardie	33-1	61	67	74
Free-going sort; not matched 2yo form (for Harry Eustace) in three runs for new connections and he looked a hard ride at Wolverhampton last month, hanging badly right throughout; risky on the back of that.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Silver State was impressive at Bath last week but he has faster ground to deal with this time and there are interesting alternatives. Saxophonist and Tarmonbarry Kid (second choice) are potential big improvers now handicapping but WELBURY (nap) is far from exposed himself and he also has the advantage of a run behind him. He can provide the in-form Ed Bethell stable with another winner.[Paul Smith]

	Percy's Daydream 4 10-2	D O'Meara	Daniel Tudhope	11-2	74	71	78
Progressive as a 3yo, winning at Lingfield (1m2f, good to firm) and Leicester (1m4f, good); below par on her final start in 2025 but she reportedly boiled over in the preliminaries; still has low mileage; market useful with the stable also running Myrrh.
	Little Miss India 5 9-13h	J Owen	Paddy Bradley	8-1	71	46	78
Often slowly away but it hasn't prevented her from winning three times on the AW since October (9.4f-1m4f); this trip more suitable than the 1m she tackled at Bath 19 days ago; untried on faster than good.
	Saliko 4 9-13	J Jones	Lewis Edmunds	14-1	71	67	80
Won twice at Nottingham last July (1m2f, good and good to soft); just 1lb higher than for the second of those victories but she ended 2025 with a poor run and may not want the ground too lively.
	Ablon 4 9-11	R Hannon	Sean Levey	3-1	69	15	83
Two improved efforts this year, runner-up at Kempton (1m) in February before making all in a 7f novice back at Kempton two weeks later; bred to stay this longer trip well and her best days could still be ahead of her.
	Nanny Park 4 9-10	Sara Ender	Jonny Peate	12-1	68	64	77
1m AW win as a 2yo; consistent last year without looking ahead of her mark; sold out of James Fanshawe's stable for 18,000gns in October; she will need to be at the top of her game to make a winning stable debut after 193 days off.
	Finally Escaped 4 8-11ht	R G Fell	George Wood	12-1	55	50	76
Fitted with headgear for the first time at Thirsk two weeks ago (1m, good; turf debut) and ran her best race so far, keeping on for a never-dangerous sixth of 13 (beaten 3.75l); should stay this trip and she is open to further progress.
	Myrrh 3 8-10	D O'Meara	Mark Winn	8-1	71	38	76
Improved her RPR with each of her three 2yo runs, winning at Hamilton in September (8.3f, soft; second past the post) and running well for third at Kempton one month later (1m; penalised); some encouragement for 1m2f on pedigree; stable also run Percy's Daydream.
	Alkumatic Jo Jo 3 8-8	I Furtado	Silvestre De Sousa	9-1	69	54	72
In the frame in her four 2yo runs (7f-1m); only midfield on her seasonal debut 12 days ago but stepping up in trip could spark something extra.
	Oh Yes You Do 3 8-8	D Menuisier	Saffie Osborne	3-1	69	44	78
Had subsequent winners back in second and third when scoring at Leicester in October (1m, good to soft), her second start; still looked to be learning her job there and she is open to further progress this year; 1m2f seems likely to suit her well; strong contender.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT The two runners with the greatest potential appear to be Oh Yes You Do and ABLON and the selection, who won over 7f when last seen, should be seen to greater effect over this longer trip. Of the remainder, Alkumatic Jo Jo can step forward from her recent return to action.[Paul Smith]

Half-brother to a Group 3 winner; justified market support when overcoming inexperience to win a 6f maiden at Lingfield (AW) in January; open to improvement and he can make a bold bid despite his 7lb penalty; withdrawn after playing up in the preliminaries at Newcastle last month.
	Flight Control 3 9-4	K Frost	William Pyle (3)	33-1	-	-	-
200,000euros yearling; sold unraced for 8,000gns last October; first foal of a modest maiden from the family of Rock Of Gibraltar; likely best watched.
	King's Road Dandy 3 9-4	D & N Barron	Connor Beasley	12-1	-	47	70
Absent and gelded since finishing third of eight in a Pontefract maiden (6f; good to firm) 261 days ago; open to improvement but it will be required.
	Kodi K 3 9-4	J Gallagher	William Cox	66-1	-	21	46
Modest form in two maidens (6.5f and 6f) on slow ground last autumn; today's faster ground needs to spark a transformation.
	Masaban 3 9-4	E Bethell	Callum Rodriguez	8-1	-	27	70
Signs of ability in two runs for Dermot Weld last summer (7f, yielding/1m, AW); gelded and sold for 20,000euros in November; bred to do much better and he makes his return with his new stable going well; he's an interesting 3yo but the drop to 6f isn't sure to suit on paper; betting should guide.
	Rousham 3 9-4h	N Tinkler	Faye McManoman	66-1	-	-	46
Pulled hard, despite wearing a hood, and was always in rear in Newcastle maiden (7f, AW; 125-1) last month; withdrawn after playing up in the stalls at Pontefract this month; can't recommend.
	Roy Lane 3 9-4	K Burke	Pierre-Louis Jamin	7-1	-	34	63
Couldn't land a blow in a 5f novice (good to firm; weak 15-2 chance) at last season's Dante meeting; absent for 345 days, during which time he has been gelded; has a fine sprinting pedigree so a big step forward would come as no great surprise.
	Space Party 3 9-4	H Candy	Nicola Currie	14-1	-	-	-
9,000euros foal, £55,000 breeze-up 2yo; half-brother to 5f winner Ninety Nine (RPR 70); dam a Group-placed 5f/6f 2yo winner (96), out of 5f/6f winning half-sister to Group 3 winners Silca's Gift (7f) and Violette (6f); two of the trainer's four runners this year (all in the last eight days) have been successful; worth a market check.
	Stoneacre Joe 3 9-4	T Easterby	David Allan	33-1	-	37	37
33-1, green and always in rear on his Redcar debut last June (6f, good to firm); gelded since; likely one for the longer term.
	That's Random 3 9-4	H Charlton	Lewis Edmunds	25-1	-	-	67
Just minor promise in two AW starts 137 days apart, the latest at Kempton (6f) 18 days ago; pedigree offers hope he will do better at some stage but such progress may come when handicapping.
	The Jackal 3 9-4	J Keane	Jack Mitchell	7-2	-	-	76
He made a pleasing debut, as predicted by the betting, when second of nine at Wolverhampton last month (6f); couldn't cope with the easy winner on that occasion but that rival has since gone on to win a Newmarket handicap off a BHA mark of 85; open to improvement; each-way shout.
	Wintercast 3 9-4	Jane Chapple-Hyam	Silvestre De Sousa	4-1	-	-	-
700,000gns yearling; first foal of a 7f 2yo/1m4f winner (including Listed; RPR 107), herself a sister to 1m4f Listed winner Rainbow Sky; there is also some speed in the bottom line of his pedigree but, even so, longer trips should suit better in time; still warrants a close market check on debut.
	Azure Point 3 8-13	M & D Easterby	Joanna Mason	20-1	-	-	-
44,000euros foal, 45,000gns yearling; sixth foal; closely related to 6f winner Pure Artistry (RPR 62), half-sister to winners Epic Pass (7.5f-1m2f including AW/Germany; 81) and Upepo (1m4f/1m5f AW; 77); dam 5f-1m winner (including Listed; 105); enough paper appeal to mean he can't be discounted.

Second foal of a 5f 2yo winner (including Group 3; RPR 100); starts out in a winnable race and she needs a look in the market.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Wintercast and Wayward Queen are well-bred newcomers to consider, while The Jackal shaped well on last month's debut and is open to improvement, as is Masaban for whom there is a slight query over the drop to 6f. Roy Lane (second choice) can leave his 2yo debut well behind him this year but BUCKLOW HILL looked a useful prospect when winning at Lingfield on his debut and he may defy his penalty.[Paul Smith]

		Trainer	Jockey	SP	OR	TS	RPR
	Cotton Bud 3 9-9	S Lycett	Daniel Tudhope	7-1	69	47	72
Steady progression in four starts for Kevin Philippart De Foy and left that yard for £26,000gns after finishing second in Nottingham nursery (about 1m, good) in October; new trip a positive on pedigree and market should help on this reappearance and stable debut.
	Rumbustious 3 9-9	Charlie Johnston	Jack Mitchell	6-1	69	-	71
Narrowly recorded his best effort when staying on for third on return at Chelmsford (1m2f, AW) last month; brings potential to this handicap debut with turf no problem on pedigree.
	Brave Leader 3 9-9	T Ward	Sean Levey	4-1	69	42	74
Steady improvement in three qualifying runs around 1m (good/AW) last year; pedigree a pointer to him doing better over this longer trip on this handicap debut/reappearance; has been gelded.
	Kiss For An Angel 3 9-9	R & P Fahey	Shane Gray	7-2	69	60	75
Tapped back into his initial promise when close second of five in Redcar nursery (1m, good) in November; gelded ahead of this comeback and he's another whose pedigree suggests this trip can unlock more.
	Tommo's Ginjaninja 3 9-7	M & D Easterby	Joanna Mason	12-1	67	-	76
Showed improvement when second at Southwell (1m, AW) in March; interesting to see if he can build on that up in trip for this turf and handicap debut.
	Berkshire Schmokin 3 9-6	A Balding	P J McDonald	6-1	66	30	77
Two turf starts last year; made the breakthrough in his second handicap when scoring at Wolverhampton (9.5f, AW) in February; yet to build on that, however, and others arguably have more scope for improvement on this switch back to grass.
	Madjid 3 9-5	H Charlton	Lewis Edmunds	7-1	65	-	71
Big chunk of improvement when fourth at Southwell (1m, AW) in January; switches back to turf (sole run easily forgiven) and he's interesting up in trip on this handicap debut.
	Claytons Kolatonic 3 9-3	D Ffrench Davis	Rob Hornby	12-1	63	-	70
200-1 but it was his best effort when fourth at Kempton (1m, AW) at the start of this month; mixed messages on pedigree for this trip but he can't be ruled out on turf/handicap debut.
	Frustration 3 8-12	J Candlish	Jason Hart	33-1	58	50	67
80-1 for her handicap debut and was beaten 18l at Wolverhampton (9.5f, AW) last month; others have more compelling cases.
	Risk Averse Rebel 3 8-4	G Hanmer	Sean D Bowen	14-1	50	41	74
Fairly solid efforts in three AW handicaps last month but others have more scope for improvement on this switch back to turf.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Plenty of these have the potential to kick on again now raised in distance. They include Cotton Bud, Brave Leader (second choice) and KISS FOR AN ANGEL, who has star stayer Kyprios not far back in his pedigree. Tommo's Ginjaninja and Madjid are just two others that need considering in a field of largely unexposed 3yos.[Richard Russell]
