	Strong Run 7 11-9t	F O'Brien	Jonathan Burke	6-5	115	106	120
Did well in bumpers and came good at the second attempt over hurdles at Southwell (2m4f, good to soft) in December; bettered that form when second at Wincanton (2m5f, heavy) in January; unable to make an impact in the EBF mares' final (handicap) at Newbury last month but bold show looks assured back in a novice.
	Grey Gamble 5 11-2	E Lavelle	Ben Jones	10-1	-	-	-
Showed a bit when midfield in a couple of bumpers but not enough to suggest she's likely to make a winning start over hurdles after five months off.
	Lisnamurrican 6 11-2	N Henderson	Nico de Boinville	10-11	-	110	125
Won a soft-ground Irish point in December 2024; encouraging second on Huntingdon hurdle debut (2m4f, soft) a year later; a little disappointing when fifth of 16 at Warwick (2m3f, good to soft) in January but given a bit of time since and may confirm that hurdle debut promise at the second time of asking.
	Madmoiselle Moss 6 11-2h	T Leeson	Tabitha Worsley	200-1	-	-	-
Tailed off in two bumpers ahead of this switch to hurdles.
	Pink Perjury 5 11-2	Polly Gundry	Charlie Deutsch	150-1	-	-	-
Always behind in two bumpers and likely booked for another struggle now hurdling.
	Precious Jean 6 11-2w t ¹	Suzy Smith	Isabelle Ryder (5)	200-1	50	-	-
No sign of ability over hurdles, including a low-grade handicap; a wind operation since last seen (also tongue-tied first time) needs to spark huge improvement.
	That Is Blue 5 11-2	Henrietta Knight	Caoilin Quinn	9-1	-	78	103
Third in a Wincanton bumper (1m7f, heavy) and Plumpton maiden hurdle (2m4f, good) just under ten weeks apart; has ability but will need to raise her game to seriously trouble Lisnamurrican and Strong Run.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Nicky Henderson's LISNAMURRICAN is taken to confirm her hurdle debut promise at the second time of asking and make the most of the 7lb she receives from previous hurdle winner Strong Run. [Andrew Sheret]

	Ballynaheer 7 12-0tp	D Dennis	Jonathan Burke	7-2	107	99	108
Progressive 7yo who has form figures of 1221141 over fences since September; only two completed when he scored at Market Rasen (3m, good) 19 days ago but he still looks on a workable mark and his first chase win was over C&D; strongly respected.
	Gold Clermont 10 11-12p	Andy Irvine	Chad Bament (7)	7-1	105	105	114
All four wins have come over fences Andy Irvine; her last success was in January 2024 but that was at this track (3m3f) and she returned to form with a creditable third over hurdles here (3m2f, soft) last month; that was only her second start since rejoining her former stable and she's in the mix back over fences.
	Le Galli Bier 5 11-7tp	G & J Moore	Freddie Mitchell (3)	8-1	102	92	113
Respectable effort from out of the weights in a higher grade here (2m3f, good to soft) last month but overall record is now 0-13 and he has stamina to prove at this new trip; others are more persuasive.
	Moonlit Potter 8 11-4b	Dr R Newland & J Insole	Charlie Hammond	7-1	97	98	111
Winning hurdler for Henry Daly in 2024 but she's been generally disappointing over fences and unseated at the seventh when front-running at Hereford last week; on dangerous mark but she's now 0-9 in this sphere and others are more convincing.
	Carrigmoorna Rowan 9 11-3	R Potter	James Davies	8-1	96	111	114
Became disappointing for Harry Fry; competitive form over hurdles and fences for current yard but he bled three runs back and couldn't hang in there at Exeter (2m3f, good) last time; continues to drop down the weights but he's now 0-8 over fences and is untried at this trip.
	Edgewell 8 10-12p	N Scholfield	Harry Reed	100-30	91	99	112
8yo who has been resurgent with wins at Hereford (3m1f, good) in his last two starts; 3lb higher than last time but he stayed on strongly to beat a clear second and remains well handicapped on his best form; key player.
	Sweet Nightingale 9 10-9t	Polly Gundry	Charlie Deutsch	3-1	88	102	115
Made the breakthrough over fences with 10l win at Exeter (3m, good) last month; was beaten by 10l when third of four at Plumpton (3m2f) last time but that was behind two progressive 6yos and her jockey went for home a circuit too soon; still has potential as a staying chaser and she's in the mix off same mark as last time.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT An interesting race in which the vote goes to the resurgent EDGEWELL who has won at Hereford in his last two runs and remains well handicapped on his best form. The progressive Ballynaheer has won four of his last seven starts and he's feared most ahead of Sweet Nightingale, who ran better than the bare facts behind two improvers at Plumpton last time. Four-time chase winner Gold Clermont is also in the mix after her creditable effort over hurdles here last month.[David Moon]

	Yellow Star 6 11-6p	G & J Moore	Caolin Quinn	16-1	118	96	128
Bounced back with a win at Warwick (2m5f, good to soft) in December but he was tailed off in next two starts and he didn't get very far at Newbury (fell at third) last time; has plenty to prove again and he's still 3lb higher than for his last win.
	Precious Metal 5 11-4	Henrietta Knight	Ben Jones	6-1	116	96	124
Bumper and maiden hurdle winner; pulled up in a Sandown handicap (2m4f, soft) last month but that was a tough assignment in a valuable event and he still has potential after only five runs in this sphere; needs checking in market on this drop back in grade.
	He's A Latchico 8 11-4	G & J Moore	Tom Queally	11-2	116	106	126
Four-time hurdle winner who has form figures of 11631 at Fontwell; has mixed record this season but he went close at Plumpton (2m4f, soft) on his penultimate run and was rallying in a close fifth when he unseated two out at Kempton (2m, good) last time; one of two runners for the yard and he's an interesting contender back at this track.
	Valadon 6 11-3t	H Fry	Bryan Carver	7-2	115	103	126
Scored with a tongue-tie added at Plumpton (2m4f, good to soft) last month and he ran to a similar level when a 2l third at Wincanton (2m4f, good) last time; has been as good as ever in those last two runs and he won this race last year; respected.
	Calvino 6 11-3	P Nicholls	Paddy Hanlon (5)	5-1	115	119	128
Fast-ground bumper winner who landed a Taunton novice (2m3f, good) in January but he was disappointing on his return visit the following month; bit to prove after that but he's still lightly raced and it wouldn't be a surprise if he resumed his progress on handicap debut.
	Jackomy 6 11-2	N Mulholland	Conor O'Farrell	11-8	114	113	127
Lightly raced 6yo who justified favouritism in a Wincanton handicap (2m4f, good) last month and followed up with a dominant display at Ludlow (2m5f, good); up another 10lb but his form has really taken off recently and he's open to more progress; big player.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Top of the list is the lightly raced 6yo JACKOMY (nap) who has really got his act together recently and made it 2-4 in handicaps with a dominant display at Ludlow three weeks ago. Last year's winner Valadon has been as good as ever in his last two runs and he's feared most, ahead of triple course winner He's A Latchico. Another who needs a close look is Paul Nicholls' handicap newcomer is Calvino. [David Moon]

	Has Troke 9 12-0	A Hales	Bryan Carver	9-2	100	80	103
Course novice winner in 2022 who doubled his tally over hurdles at Lingfield (2m7f, also soft) last February; creditable seasonal reappearance in December wasn't built on and he finished 30l adrift having sprawled two out at Market Rasen two months ago; maybe just his second visit to this track will relight the fire but probably doesn't want the ground to dry out appreciably.
	West Orchard 9 11-10p	J Tizzard	Freddie Gingell	7-4	96	90	97
Four-time winner over fences including here (about 2m 3f, good) in 2024; last ran over hurdles when second at Wincanton (about 3m, good to soft) and he returns to this sphere after a couple of errors at Plumpton last month; respected.
	Fravanco 7 11-4	M Madgwick	Marc Goldstein	8-1	90	78	101
Dual AW winner on the Flat who was 61l adrift when beating one home on his handicap hurdle debut at Kempton (2m) last month; just a fair effort on the Flat a fortnight ago; upped markedly in trip for his second go in this sphere.
	Approaching Storm 5 10-2	N Gifford	Tabitha Worsley	10-1	74	74	93
Not too much encouragement in three maiden hurdles at up to 2m4f but there was a whiff of something on penultimate start and this new trip might help on her handicap debut.
	Amalfi Skyline 7 10-2h	F J Brennan	Isabelle Ryder (5)	9-2	74	73	103
Hereford winner over fences (2m5f, good to soft) in 2024 who was also second over hurdles at Plumpton (3m1f, good) that year; missed 2025 and fell on his stable debut in February but there were signs he retained ability despite finishing last of five here (about 2m5f, soft) last month; possibilities in a thin event.
	Counteract 11 10-2	C Gordon	Tom Cannon	6-1	74	-	-
Dual chase winner in the spring of 2021 but he'd lost his form when last seen in November 2023; impossible to predict what this stable debut will produce but he's on a dangerous mark and the market should give firm indications.
	Shesupincourt 9 10-2tp	R Potter	Paddy Hanlon (5)	12-1	74	57	93
2-31 over hurdles (soft/heavy) but the losing run is mounting up, as are a string of big defeats; the latest of those came at Hereford just eight days ago and she's out of the weights again.
	Miss Jaffa Cake 6 10-2	Polly Gundry	Harry Reed	40-1	74	69	81
Not the biggest and her form figures are uninspiring but there were hints of ability before unseating in Wincanton novice in January; subsequent efforts suggest that might have been a false dawn and she's out of the weights again.
	Simon The Seagull 7 10-2p ¹	Mrs D Grissell	Freddie Mitchell (3)	20-1	74	76	96
Matched his previous best when beaten 17l in fourth at Lingfield (about 2m3f, good to soft) in November but pulled up then last (first-time visor) in two subsequent outings; cheekpieces now given a whirl and might come on for latest outing; 6lb 'wrong', though.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Few of these are rock solid, to put it charitably, with West Orchard (second choice) almost getting a default vote. However, it's worth giving AMALFI SKYLINE the chance to build on his second run back from a big absence, when he hinted some talent remains despite finishing last at this track 41 days ago. Has Troke's body of work makes him eligible for a mention, while market interest in the remainder, notably long-absent veteran Counteract, might be worth heeding.[Richard Russell]

 Jaffa Cake 6 12-0ht ¹	B Pauling	Ben Jones	10-1	95	-	-
Mostly disappointing since finishing second in a bumper last spring, weakening quickly and pulled up in both handicap hurdles in recent months; too soon to write off but switches to fences with something to prove; a first-time hood and tongue-tie combination is also added.
 Kitsilano 9 11-12v ¹	D Bridgwater	Tom Cannon	12-1	93	92	102
Both wins on heavy, latterly a 2m chase at Leicester in February; creditable third at Plumpton next time but didn't jump well when remote fourth over 2m5f here (good to soft) four weeks ago; on the back of that the cheekpieces he's worn on his last five outings are replaced by a first-time visor.
 It's A Breeze 7 11-12ht	P Nicholls	Jay Tidball (5)	7-1	93	-	-
0-9 over hurdles; did finish second in a 3m Wincanton handicap (good to soft) last month but only sixth back there since; switches to fences in a bid to get straight back on track for leading stable.
 Fourtwofour 5 11-10	K Jewell	Freddie Mitchell (3)	40-1	91	-	-
Beaten upwards of 43l in three maiden hurdles in Ireland and 19l third on his completed start in points there in the autumn; tough to argue his opening mark looks generous now switching to fences for a new yard.
 Majestic Moment 7 11-10	D Summersby	Bryan Carver	3-1	91	93	102
His 2m2f course success in October was very fortunate (looked held in dispute of third when left to finish alone at the last) but there was no luck involved when returning from a break to land a second chase win at Exeter (2m3f, good) 17 days ago; a 4lb rise shouldn't prevent another bold bid.
 King Of The Story 10 11-9t	Polly Gundry	Ben Poste	14-1	90	74	99
Had a very hit-and-miss record when last seen, with his six outings between July and November resulting in three wins (all 2m4f, good) and three pulled ups; hard to know what mood he'll show up in after five months off.
 A Little Something 7 11-8	E Lavelle	Jonathan Burke	11-2	89	68	103
Had heavy ground as an excuse when pulled up on chase debut in February after nine months off and fared a lot better back on a sounder surface when second of six at Ludlow (2m4f, good) 25 days ago; her jumping was a bit iffy but is entitled to get better with experience; enters calculations.
 Hatos 9 11-3tp	J Tizzard	Freddie Gingell	6-1	84	93	101
All three wins have been on heavy ground; C&D second in January was also on soft but his two placed efforts over 2m4f at Wincanton since came on good to soft and good; ought to be thereabouts again but it is now over two years since his last win.
 Gorcombe Moonshine 9 10-11p	R Walford	Harry Kimber	5-1	78	94	100
Just 1-34 under rules but the win came here (in 2023) and he went very close to a second course success 16 days ago, going down by only a head over this trip on good to soft; another who could be involved in the finish.
 Ballybay 9 10-8ht	M McGrath	Caoilin Quinn	33-1	75	-	-
This 9yo has raced seven times under rules for three different yards; completed for the first time for this one (including pulled up on chase debut) when fifth in 2m2f Plumpton handicap hurdle 19 days ago but it wasn't a performance which makes him of obvious interest.
 Millies Mite 10 10-5tp	K Jewell	Marc Goldstein	10-1	72	81	100
Pulled up on her final two outings in 2025 but looked in much better form back from a break here 16 days ago, moving well close to the pace when unseating four out; has won the last two runnings of this race off similar marks and could be set for another bold bid.
 Greenways 7 10-4tp	R Potter	Paddy Hanlon (5)	16-1	71	91	97
Successful over 2m at Uttoxeter (good) but out of form since, with recent 14.5l third at Market Rasen (2m1f, good) no big step back in the right direction.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Majestic Moment (second choice) did it quite nicely at Exeter and should go well again but MILLIES MITE looked menacing when unseating four out here last time and is taken to land this race for the third year running. Gorcombe Moonshine and A Little Something are others to consider. 	Blue Universe 6 12-0	M Attwater	Paddy Hanlon (5)	5-1	100	97	105
0-12 over hurdles but he ran well to finished second off this mark at Huntingdon (2m3f, soft) in February; this is a deeper race but he's versatile ground-wise and has each-way claims again after a short break.
	Calshot Spit 6 12-0	Sheena West	Marc Goldstein	12-1	100	71	102
Acts on fast and heavy ground; dual course winner, more recently when clinging on by a short head in December (2m2f, heavy ground); back on the same mark today but he's struggled in his last two runs and needs to get back on track.
	Spanish Dancer 7 11-12	R Bandey	James Davies	7-1	98	93	100
Half-brother to four winners including Bal Celtique (French 2m1f-2m3f hurdle/chase); well-held fifth in his three qualifying runs but he showed some promise behind some useful rivals; looks a possible improver now upped in trip on handicap debut and he needs watching in market.
	Jefe Triunfo 7 11-12	C Gordon	Dylan Johnston	14-1	98	99	103
Won a maiden hurdle at Warwick (2m, good) last June but he's gone the wrong way in handicaps and was tailed off on Plumpton reappearance (2m4f, good) two weeks ago; mark continues to fall but he has something to prove.
	Superstylin 9 11-10t	C Gordon	Tom Cannon	5-2	96	78	103
Three wins over fences this season and last two have been at Fontwell (2m2f/2m3f, good to soft); well-held second of four at Plumpton 19 days ago but that was behind an improver from the Nicholls yard; 10lb lower on this return to hurdling and he's an interesting contender in suitable conditions.
	Easter Icon 7 11-9	G Brown	Isabelle Ryder (5)	7-1	95	76	103
Productive spell from August 2024 to April 2025 over hurdles and on the Flat; has had some struggles in a light campaign this season but he showed signs of a revival at Stratford (2m6f, good) last month and has possibilities if he can build on that.
	Bushstreet Bowman 6 11-5	B Pauling	Ben Jones	8-1	91	45	101
Tailed off in his two competed starts in novice events and he's struggled switched to handicaps in last two runs; still unexposed but he was 50-1 at Chepstow (2m3f, good to soft) last time and needs to leave that form a long way behind.
	Bread And Butter 11 11-3t	C Woods	Freddie Mitchell (3)	40-1	89	106	103
Five-time hurdle winner (2m3f-2m5f) but his last success was 16 months ago and this veteran has been out of sorts in his last four runs; opposable.
	Nelson Gate 4 11-0p	G & J Moore	Caoilin Quinn	9-1	96	58	100
11-race maiden under both codes; tailed off in last two hurdle runs but he showed some promise when runner-up in a juvenile event here (2m2f, good to soft) in November; now goes handicapping at this new trip and he needs watching in market after 111 days off; cheekpieces reapplied.
	Dontaskchris 8 10-11h ¹	Mrs D Grissell	Harry Kimber	33-1	83	89	-
Unexposed 8yo but he didn't show great over hurdles in 2024 which included a refusal to race over C&D; now goes handicapping but he has plenty to prove after almost two years off; hood added.
	My Lovely Horse 6 10-11p	D Bridgwater	James Turner (5)	25-1	83	78	96
Pulled up in three of her five attempts over hurdles including over 2m on handicap debut at Plumpton (reported to have bled from the nose) last month; still early days in this sphere but she has lots to prove back up in trip.
	Hiero Sport 9 10-10ht	A Hales	Bryan Carver	13-2	82	75	98
Defied this mark at Fakenham (2m4f, good) in October 2024; only four runs since but he returned after another break with a front-running third at Huntingdon (2m5f) three weeks ago; should benefit from that run and he's not ruled out on this drop back in trip.
	Chosen Bae 7 10-2	R Potter	Ben Poste	50-1	74	60	89
Won handicap debut at Bangor (2m3f, soft) last February 2025 but he's been well held in eight runs this season and latest was at Hereford last week; out of the weights again and he can only be watched.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Most of these have plenty to prove but SUPERSTYLIN has won three times over fences this season including off 6lb higher here on his penultimate run. He's an interesting contender on this return to hurdling and he won't mind if the ground dries out. Blue Universe, who was runner-up at Huntingdon last time, is feared most ahead of Easter Icon and Hiero Sport.
