	Pursuit Of Love 3 9-10	C Appleby	William Buick	8-13	-	-	96
Sent off the odds-on favourite for his Southwell debut (1m3f) eight weeks ago and he ran on strongly to win by just shy of 3l; that form looks solid and he is open to plenty of improvement; looks a good prospect.
	Ravenspire 3 9-10	K Burke	Pierre-Louis Jamin	9-4	-	-	89
Created a positive impression when easily winning a 1m4f novice at Southwell last month, coming home 3l clear of a stablemate of Pursuit Of Love; likely he will need more to follow up but he is still of serious interest.
	Poker 3 9-4p ¹	K Burke	David Egan	9-1	-	62	82
Ran to a modest level in novices on good to soft ground last autumn (7f and 1m1f); upped in trip and tried in headgear for his reappearance and this 4,300,000gns yearling remains capable of better.
	Quiet Summer 3 9-4	A Balding	Daniel Muscutt	10-1	-	-	-
13,000euros yearling; ninth foal; half-brother to seven winners including Quian (1m-2m Flat including 2yo/German Group 3, RPR 104; 2m-2m3f hurdle) and Laggata (9.4f; 76); dam German 1m4f winner, half-sister to triple 1m4f Group 1 winner Quijano; should have a bright future but he makes his debut in a good novice.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT The two once-raced winners set a useful standard and PURSUIT OF LOVE, who recorded a good time when scoring at Southwell in February, can get the better of Ravenspire. [Paul Smith]

 Silken Bay 3 9-9h	Dr R Newland & J Insole	Jack Doughty	9-1	-	-	82
Never in contention on her Wolverhampton debut in February (8.6f); fitted with a hood for her second start and she recorded a shock 50-1 success in a five-runner event over 1m at Southwell 23 days ago; this looks tougher under a penalty.
 Symbol Of Majesty 3 9-9	J & T Gosden	William Buick	10-11	-	-	91
Smart pedigree; did really well to win a 1m fillies' novice at Chelmsford in December, blowing the start and having plenty to do turning for home but producing a fast finish to win under a hand ride; strong claims despite her penalty.
 Brighton Beach 3 9-2	W Haggas	Paul Mulrennan	16-1	-	-	-
Eighth foal; half-sister to six winners including Alkandora (10.5f Listed; RPR 107), Persian Royal (1m; 97) and Cambric (1m4f-1m6f; 84); dam Listed-placed 1m 2yo winner (103); one of two for William Haggas but Tom Marquand rides Chimes Of Thunder.
 Chimes Of Thunder 3 9-2	W Haggas	Tom Marquand	7-1	-	33	77
Dropped away in the final furlong on her Salisbury debut last October (7f, good; trained by David Menuisier), a race that developed into a three-furlong sprint; should appreciate today's longer trip and she's an interesting contender starting out for William Haggas (same owners).
 Forbidden Colours 3 9-2	E Walker	George Downing	5-1	-	51	88
Last September's Newmarket debut (7f, good to firm) was full of promise; failed to build on it when fifth of ten at Chelmsford last month but that run may have been needed and she can surely do better back on turf and upped in trip.
 Golden Mabel 3 9-2h	Mrs L Williamson	Ben Robinson	200-1	-	-	49
300-1 and finished well beaten on last month's Wolverhampton debut (8.6f).
 Mountain Of Light 3 9-2	J Horton	Daniel Muscutt	7-1	-	-	-
425,000gns yearling; third foal; half-sister to winners Manara (1m-1m4f; RPR 89) and Dance Desire (Saudi Arabia 7f-1m1f); dam 6f winner (96), out of close relative of 1m2f Group 1 winner Wavering and half-sister to 1m2f 2yo Group 1 winner Mandaeen; market strength would look significant.
 Sedeirah 3 9-2	E Bethell	Callum Rodriguez	10-1	-	-	-
Second foal of a Group-placed 1m/1m2f winner (RPR 115), herself from a good family; makes her debut for a stable in good form and she needs a look in the betting.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Mountain Of Light and Sedeirah are newcomers of note, while Chimes Of Thunder and Forbidden Colours (second choice) both have untapped potential. SYMBOL OF MAJESTY did well to overcome a slow start and poor track position on her Chelmsford debut and this well-related filly sets the standard with the prospect of significant further progress.[Paul Smith]

Finished second in a Group 1 in Australia in October 2024 (1m2f, good; visored first time); well short of his best in two runs in early 2025 and has since been gelded and transferred to Britain; had a wind op prior to this first start for Kevin Ryan; no easy task under top weight.
	Marshman 6 9-11	K Burke	Jack Nicholls (5)	10-1	104	77	113
Close third in Listed company at Wolverhampton last month on his first attempt at 7f and he wasn't beaten for a lack of stamina; not at his best in a hot sprint handicap at Newcastle on Good Friday; no surprise to see him bounce back with a big run.
	Cerulean Bay 5 9-10	D O'Meara	Daniel Muscatt	9-1	103	100	112
Had strong handicap form over 1m in the second half of 2025, finishing second at York's Ebor meeting (good to firm) before recording back-to-back wins at Goodwood (good to soft and good); ran well for third in a Nottingham Listed race when last seen 178 days ago; only seventh in this race 12 months ago and he's 4lb higher today.
	Caburn 4 9-7p	J Tate	Hector Crouch	7-1	100	90	114
Won a valuable pot as a 2yo; slow to come to hand as a 3yo but he changed yards last summer and made an impressive winning return from a gelding operation last September (6f, good to soft; cheekpieces on for the first time); fine reappearance when third in the Listed Cammidge Trophy at Doncaster (6f, good to soft) four weeks ago; raised 3lb for his troubles and still has to prove his stamina for 7f.
	Great Acclaim 5 9-5b	E Houghton	Charles Bishop	7-1	98	101	113
Strong handicap form over 7f last summer, winning at Goodwood and Chepstow as well as finishing second in a 20-runner event at Ascot (all when wearing blinkers); still feasibly weighted on that form and he went without headgear when down the field in the Lincoln; the blinkers return today and he's a leading contender.
	Khafiz 4 9-4h	E Bethell	Callum Rodriguez	9-2	97	83	118
Began 2025 with 7f novice wins at Kempton and Doncaster; ended his 3yo campaign with a close third at Doncaster (7f, soft) 183 days ago; sold out of Roger Varian's stable for 85,000gns in October; still has low mileage, is yet to run a poor race when wearing a hood and is starting out for a trainer in great form; lots to like.
	Sarab Star 4 9-4p ¹	J Channon	Tom Marquand	9-2	97	-	114
His latest Newcastle defeat isn't the run to judge him on and he had been progressing well beforehand; no problem with the return to turf and stepping back up to 7f will be of benefit; interesting with cheekpieces now given a go.
	Croupier 7 9-3	J Parkinson & S Smith	Paul Mulrennan	33-1	96	-	-
Progressive handicapper for the Crisfords and he was last seen finishing second in the Buckingham Palace at Royal Ascot (7f, good to firm) in June 2023; sold for 20,000gns in May 2024; only dropped 3lb during his 1038-day absence; likely best watched.
	Cosi Bello 4 9-2	C Fellowes	Paddy Bradley	7-2	95	89	118
Began his career with two 7f AW wins and he was a fine second at Chester on his handicap debut last June (7f, good); fourth of 17 in a 1m handicap at Ascot when last seen nine months ago, a run that can be marked up as he raced away from the first three home; still has potential and he returns with his stable back in better form.
	Darkness 8 9-1	D O'Meara	Ben Robinson	16-1	94	98	112
Came good at Goodwood last August (7f, good to firm), running on strongly to bag a Class 2 handicap; faced a stiff task in a Thirsk conditions event on his reappearance two weeks ago; opposable with his usual visor remaining absent.
	Korker 7 9-1	K Burke	Pierre-Louis Jamin	20-1	94	110	117
Well beaten at Doncaster on his return but he wasn't well drawn and has a modest record fresh; stepping up to 7f will give him more time to claw back the ground he's likely to forfeit at the start; on a dangerous mark and he's a lively outsider, for all his losing run stretches back to October 2023.
	The Angel King 4 9-0	I Williams	David Egan	33-1	93	105	112
The winner of two of his six starts in France, both over 7f on ground slower than good; sold for 36,000euros in February; makes his stable debut in a competitive race.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Cosi Bello, Sarab Star and Khafiz (second choice) are part of a strong 4yo contingent but GREAT ACCLAIM (nap) ran a string of good races in 7f handicaps when blinkers went on last summer and the return of the headgear can see him leave his reappearance effort well behind him. Korker could go well at a price now tackling 7f for the first time.[Paul Smith]

	Cavolo Nero 4 9-10p	J Ferguson	Daniel Muscutt	5-2	86	82	98
Two wins over shorter as a 3yo; improved when second at Kempton on his seasonal return last month (1m) and when third at Nottingham 17 days ago he found himself poorly positioned; well worth another crack at this trip and he should make a bold bid.
	Winter Flower 4 9-6	W Haggas	Tom Marquand	100-30	82	61	98
Only four ran when she won her novice at Newcastle (1m2f) last September; better form in handicaps on her last two starts, second at Newcastle (1m4f) and a close sixth in a Class 2 at Lingfield when last seen in December; still has time to better now returned to turf.
	Naples 4 9-6	S Hollinshead	Jack Callan (3)	33-1	82	67	94
His two peak efforts for Paddy Twomey came over 1m on soft ground; 50-1 when tailed off in the Spring Mile at Doncaster on his seasonal return; some encouragement for the longer trip on pedigree but he is not a solid option.
	Ouro Preto 5 9-6	I Jardine	NON-RUNNER		82	69	97
Three-time winner in France, the latest a claiming success over 1m4f at Longchamp last September (very soft ground); now tackles a much faster surface than he is accustomed to but his brother Ring Of Beara handled good, and probably good to firm too; betting to guide.
	Roarin' Success 6 9-5	D McCain	Paul Mulrennan	14-1	81	66	95
On a fair mark on her best Flat form for Harry Charlton; some promise over hurdles for new stable and 1m4f may have stretched her when back on the Flat at Thirsk two weeks ago.
	Empire Of Light 5 9-2	G Tuer	Oliver Stammers	5-1	78	83	97
Back to winning ways with a front-running 10.3f success in the mud at Chester last September; this course winner will need to return at the top of his game if he is to defy this 4lb higher mark.
	Ted Le Saux 4 9-2	A Balding	William Buick	11-4	78	-	97
Ready winner of a 1m novice at Newcastle in January on his second outing; flopped when odds-on at Wolverhampton last month but was reported to have an irregular heartbeat afterwards; moves back up in trip for his handicap debut and he remains capable of better.
	Cancelled 5 9-1t	J & A J O'Neill	David Egan	16-1	77	-	97
Shaped okay at Wolverhampton on her return from 11 months off in December but she failed to back it up at Southwell last month; dropping down the weights and this return to turf could be beneficial.
	Due To Henry 5 8-13	E Houghton	Charles Bishop	25-1	75	82	95
Three wins, two on soft ground, as a 3yo and he is now 9lb lower than for the latest; generally struggled last year though, before and after wind surgery, and he has too much to prove for comfort.
	Jubella 5 8-9	L Russell & M Scudamore	Pierre-Louis Jamin	14-1	71	89	94
Four wins in 2025, including at this track (extended 1m3f); all of those were in cheekpieces (absent today) and others may have her measure.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Many of these have a point to prove and it may pay to focus on the 4yo contenders. Ted Le Saux had an excuse (irregular heartbeat post race) at Wolverhampton and can step forward now handicapping, while Winter Flower (second choice) will appreciate dropping back down in class. CAVOLO NERO wasn't seen to best effect upped in trip 17 days ago and this may pan out more favourably. He looks well handicapped judged on his earlier Kempton second.[Paul Smith]

Has taken great strides since winning a seller last June, winning with authority on handicap debut at Newbury (7f, good to firm) on final 2yo start and he again had reserves when successful at Musselburgh (1m, good to soft) this month; up 4lb but he's anything but exposed; respected.
	Mr Seagull 3 9-8p ¹	H Palmer	Ross Coakley	12-1	84	80	88
Bright start, winning at Pontefract (6f, good to firm) then had work cut out trying to give weight to a promising newcomer on AW; big prices and well beaten in two sales races when last seen in September; gelded since and now goes in cheekpieces on handicap debut; faces a tough return upped to 1m.
	See Blue 3 9-8	R Hughes	Hector Crouch	13-2	84	-	90
Hit the front in the nick of time when justifying support on his Kempton AW debut in September but he was easily outpointed by a promising type on Southwell reappearance (1m) last month, when much more use was made of him; interesting to see the tactics on turf debut but should do better.
	Go Rimbaud 3 9-6	J & T Gosden	Tyler Heard	5-2	82	63	88
Golden pedigree, dam had four Group 1 winners (at 1m up to 2m4f) among her siblings, including Friendly Soul for this yard; this one hasn't been as dynamic as the latter so far and his defeat of some newcomers and handicap prospects on Kempton AW (1m; made all) 17 days ago was hard to assess in merit terms; needs more now handicapping but that's quite possible.
	Electrical 3 9-5	B Toomey	Paul Mulrennan	20-1	81	87	89
Bred to stay further than 1m but was sharp enough to win 6f Newbury novice (good to firm) on debut; found wanting in two later runs but in Listed company first and soft ground may not have suited back at Newbury (1m); gelded since; this first handicap looks competitive.
	Commanding Officer 3 9-4p ¹	C Appleby	William Buick	3-1	80	71	89
Ran up against smart types on first two 7f starts, on this track and at York (both on good), keeping on pleasingly into third on debut, then ran to similar level next time; was in the right place at the right time, unlike the second, when winning a C&D novice in September; open to improvement as a 3yo; goes handicapping with cheekpieces fitted.
	Spiritoftheblues 3 9-0	D O'Meara	Ben Robinson	20-1	76	66	90
Needed every yard of 7f on Ayr debut (good) in August but the further she went the better she looked; the step up to 1m should have suited on Kempton AW in October but she found disappointingly little; returns to action with something to prove.
	Dunkeld Dreamer 3 9-0	K Burke	Pierre-Louis Jamin	16-1	76	81	91
Ten 2yo runs, winning three handicaps at about 1m (good to firm, good and soft); took a hefty rise for the latest of them and is now 12lb higher; creditable comeback at Musselburgh recently but surprising if she's well enough treated to win today; yard also runs Strength Of Spirit.
	Gold Dawn 3 9-0v	H Palmer	Charles Bishop	14-1	76	81	92
Maiden who ran well in all three handicaps at 7f and 1m, making most when runner-up over this trip at Newmarket (good) in September; this looks a tough race in which to get off the mark; yard also runs Mr Seagull.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Those from the highest-profile yards, Commanding Officer (second choice) for Charlie Appleby and Go Rimbaud for the Gosdens, inevitably attract immediate interest, having won their most recent starts. However, STRENGTH OF SPIRIT has not had to exert himself unduly to win both his handicaps and a 4lb rise for his Musselburgh win doesn't look too harsh. See Blue could turn out the pick of the remainder.[Emily Weber]

 Paranjape 3 9-9	S Woods	Tom Marquand	3-1	70	32	76
6f maiden win at Wolverhampton in November; better form when second of 12 in a 6f handicap at Southwell 18 days ago; 1lb higher today but still a key player if able to transfer AW form back to turf.
 G'Emmethegreenlite 3 9-9h ¹	S Spencer	Dale Swift	16-1	70	59	72
Two promising 5f runs to begin his career (trained by Adrian Keatley as a 2yo) but he didn't get home over 6f when last seen; gelded and sporting a hood on this seasonal/stable/handicap debut; opening mark not an obvious gift though.
 Flash Rascal 3 9-8	Dr R Newland & J Insole	Jack Doughty	9-2	69	57	74
6f AW winner in November (form solid) and several good placed runs followed; he has more to prove on turf but he won't be far away if able to transfer his form back to the grass.
 Stoic Poet 3 9-8	I Jardine	Andrew Mullen	12-1	69	59	75
No immediate improvement for the switch to handicaps when eighth of nine over 7f here seven months ago; his novice and maiden runs had threatened better though and he still has time to fulfil that promise; betting useful.
 Whiskey Kisses 3 9-8p ¹	G Scott	David Egan	6-1	69	62	73
No threat when sixth of seven on her handicap debut at Lingfield (6f, AW) 31 days ago; dropped 3lb and now tried in cheekpieces but others bring stronger claims.
 Houndhill 3 9-7t	N Tinkler	Alex Jary (3)	12-1	68	62	73
Failed to win in five 2yo runs but has shown ability on both AW and turf; this is a deeper race than he was contesting when last seen though.
 Black Endeavour 3 9-7t	M Rimell	Paul Mulrennan	9-1	68	66	74
Followed August's 6f win at Nottingham with two solid efforts over 7f; down the field on this month's return to action at Kempton but that should have sharpened him up and he is feasibly weighted.
 John Barleycorn 3 9-7b ¹	E Houghton	Charles Bishop	12-1	68	50	74
Second of seven on his nursery debut last July (7f, good to firm) but that was followed by two lacklustre efforts (gelded before latest); back down in trip for his reappearance and goes in blinkers for the first time.
 Adalida 3 9-5	S C Williams	Callum Rodriguez	10-1	66	78	72
Eight of her nine runs have come in novice/maiden company but her one handicap run saw her finish second over C&D last July off an 8lb higher mark; returns from an 86-day break without any accessories; betting useful.
 Jenny Jerome 3 9-4	S Hodgson	Hector Crouch	6-1	65	43	72
Six-race maiden but she went close at Bath (5f, good) three weeks ago on her return from a six-month absence; returning to 6f should be fine and she is not fully exposed just yet; major contender.
 Full Gas 3 8-11p ¹	K A Ryan	Jack Callan (3)	11-1	58	60	76
More encouraging signs with his staying-on fourth of 13 at Newcastle (6f) 12 days ago; dropped 2lb for his troubles and now has headgear added for the first time; could have a bigger effort lurking.
 Call Me By My Name 3 8-10	S Hollinshead	Nicola Currie	40-1	57	60	74
Early promise for James Horton last season but his campaign rather fizzled out; starts out for a new trainer (sold for 5,000gns in October) off a reduced mark; worth a market check.
 Ellie's De Vega 3 8-10b ¹	Noel Wilson	Jamie Gormley	40-1	57	-	74
Ended his 2yo campaign with a couple of creditable runs in 7f AW nurseries; drops back to 6f for his seasonal return and with blinkers enlisted (wore cheekpieces final 2yo run); others look stronger.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Paranjape and Flash Rascal are leading contenders if they can transfer their AW form back to turf but that wouldn't be assured by any means. Full Gas (second choice) could benefit from headgear but JENNY JEROME looked a winner in waiting when second at Bath 20 days ago and this could be her day.[Paul Smith]

Promising return to action at Chelmsford in October (6f) and that was off a 6lb higher mark; no progress since but 7f has stretched him on his last two starts and he returns to 6f in a lower grade; big player with cheekpieces added for the first time.
	The Childe Of Hale 4 9-9	I Furtado	Daniel Muscutt	10-1	70	71	80
Strong at the finish when winning a 7f handicap at Doncaster last summer (good to soft); three lesser efforts followed and he returns from his 172 break over a trip that may be too sharp; he is drawn near some good pace though and looks worth a market check.
	Judicature 4 9-8	J Parkinson & S Smith	Paul Mulrennan	12-1	69	62	79
Won a 6f novice at Newcastle on his second start last summer; handicaps have proved more troublesome but he is edging down the weights and now drops into 0-70 company for the first time.
	Fiscal Policy 7 9-8	Mrs R Carr	Joanna Mason	9-4	69	88	80
No win on turf since September 2024 but he ran well for third at Thirsk (6f, good) two weeks ago, form that has been boosted by the winner and second running well in big fields since; one to be interested in off the same mark.
	Good Earth 9 9-7	M Herrington	Pierre-Louis Jamin	6-1	68	78	81
The winner of two of his six starts this year, both over 6f at Southwell; he could only manage fourth of the nine runners back at Southwell 20 days ago and he will need to raise his game to defy this mark.
	Margorie 4 9-4p ¹	E Houghton	Oliver Carmichael (7)	33-1	65	58	78
Sprung a surprise in a soft-ground 6f maiden at Windsor last September; 50-1 and well beaten in two handicaps since (1m and 7f, both Polytrack); return to 6f and the addition of cheekpieces may turn things around but it is still easy to have reservations.
	Dandy Dinmont 7 9-2	N Tinkler	Tom Marquand	9-2	63	82	81
Conditions shouldn't be an excuse and he didn't run badly at Bath (5f, good) three weeks ago after a short break; Tom Marquand a notable booking; each-way shout.
	Andalprofit 4 9-0	N Tinkler	Alex Jary (3)	12-1	61	71	83
Prominent racer; close second at Newcastle (6f) last month but he failed to back it up at Southwell three weeks ago; all his best efforts have come on a straight course so perhaps can be given the benefit of the doubt for last time; one of two runners for the stable; not discounted.
	Punchbowl Flyer 9 9-0b	John O'Shea	Charles Bishop	10-1	61	67	82
Knocking at the door over 6f and 7f on AW this year; won't mind getting back on turf and he should give it another good go from the front.
	Harry Mole 4 8-13	S Hollinshead	Jack Callan (3)	14-1	60	45	75
No better than midfield in three sprint novice runs in the latter part of 2025 and his opening mark looks tough on that evidence; looks the type his trainer will do well with now handicapping though and a much more prominent showing could be on the cards.
	Sedgemoor 5 8-8b	John Ryan	Andrew Mullen	14-1	55	59	81
It took a drop into classified company for him to return to winning ways in February (6f, AW; blinkered first time; final run for John Butler); gained a second Newcastle win of the year last month but he raced far too freely back there on Monday; up in class today and likely vulnerable.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Cherry Cobbler threatened to be a cut above this grade at one stage and a return to form could be forthcoming now he's dropped back to 6f in a 0-70 and with cheekpieces added. He is making his turf debut, however, and he could be drawn away from the best pace so he is overlooked for the win, albeit cautiously. FISCAL POLICY ran a fine race at Thirsk on his return to turf two weeks ago and he could be the answer off the same mark. Punchbowl Flyer may prove best of the rest, although keep an eye on Harry Mole too.[Paul Smith]
