		Trainer	Jockey	SP	OR	TS	RPR
	Dunsy Rock 5 11-7	G Elliott (IRE)	Harry Cobden	6-4	115	95	126
Built upon the promise of her debut run at Down Royal (2m4f, yielding) in December to win by 6l in a big field at Fairyhouse (2m, heavy) in February; leading form claims, along with her stablemate Celtic Alliance.
	Aristelle 5 11-0p	J Moffatt	Leah Noreci (10)	66-1	-	35	-
Displayed ability when third in a bumper at Carlisle (2m1f, soft) in December but tailed off at Newcastle (2m, AW) next time and same story when 50-1 for recent hurdle debut at Carlisle (2m3f, good to soft).
	Bracing Brook 7 11-0	C Bissett	Dominic Hislop (7)	200-1	-	-	-
Dam 3m hurdle winner (RPR 89); 500-1 when pulled up on debut in a novice hurdle at Ayr (2m, soft) last November; hard to fancy.
	Frankies Fortune 6 11-0	L Russell & M Scudamore	Alan Doyle (3)	20-1	-	-	-
Won Irish mares' maiden point (3m, yielding) on debut last April and ran okay when fifth in Carlisle bumper (2m1f, good) in October; tailed off there (2m1f, soft) the following month; should come good at some point but she's in a warm race for her hurdle debut and others are preferred.
	Oor Wish 6 11-0	N Alexander	Bruce Lynn	50-1	-	-	-
Big odds and unable to pose a threat this year on her three bumper starts (heavy-good to soft); bred to be suited by the step up in trip on hurdle debut but it still seems likely she'll come up short.
	Sagonige 7 11-0	R Jefferson	Jamie Hamilton	33-1	-	50	87
Tailed off this year on first two hurdle starts, following a long absence; there's a big question mark about how much ability she retains but she showed promise in bumpers in 2023-24 and might not be a forlorn hope each-way.
	Viscountess Nelson 6 11-0	N Henderson	James Bowen	3-1	-	97	114
Point winner who built upon her bumper debut fourth when 1l runner-up at Plumpton (2m4f, good to soft) last month on her first hurdle start; she has something to find with the Gordon Elliott runners but is in top hands and open to improvement.
	Celtic Alliance 4 10-11	G Elliott (IRE)	Sean Bowen	11-8	-	43	125
7-1 when winning on debut in a 4yo maiden hurdle at Clonmel (2m, soft) three weeks ago; this half-sister to the yard's useful 2m3f/2m4f hurdle winner Absolute Notions is a bright prospect and, in conjunction with stablemate Dunsy Rock, has the best form in the field.
	Quinnfinity 4 10-4	R Mike Smith	Toby Wynne	66-1	-	-	-
6,000euros 3yo; seventh foal; half-sister to winners Lone Wolf (bumper/useful 2m2f hurdle) and Love At Sea (bumper/2m1f hurdle); dam dual point winner; she's probably best watched on debut.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT This could be between the two previous hurdle winners, who are both trained by Gordon Elliott. DUNSY ROCK impressed at Fairyhouse in February and is preferred over Celtic Alliance, who made a winning debut in a 4yo maiden hurdle at Clonmel recently. The Nicky Henderson-trained Viscountess Nelson looks best of the rest. [Ben Hutton]

 A King Of Magic 5 12-2t	P Nicholls	Jay Tidball (5)	4-1	117	90	118
Won in a first-time tongue-tie (retained since) at Taunton (2m, heavy) in February on second hurdle start and went close at Sedgefield (2m1f, good) last month; he's shaped as though he'll be suited by the step up in trip and there's lots to like on his handicap debut.
 King Jon Oliver 6 12-1	O Murphy	Sean Bowen	7-1	116	88	111
Won on stable debut at Fakenham (2m4f, good to soft) in January and bounced back from heavy-ground flop on handicap debut at Hereford when fourth at Uttoxeter (2m7f, good to soft) last month; shaped last time as though this shorter trip would help and trainer has a good record in this race.
 Kingston Narcissus 7 12-0tv	R Menzies	William Maggs (3)	25-1	115	83	117
Won in a first-time tongue-tie (retained since) at Sedgefield (2m4f, good to soft) in December; however, two lesser performances have followed (2m3f/2m5f, soft/good to soft) and he needs to get back on track.
 Monaco Rules 6 11-11	M D Hammond	James Bowen	8-1	112	90	115
French hurdle winner who is 0-7 in Britain but he went close at Sedgefield (2m4f, soft) last November when last seen; also effective on good to soft ground; could be in the mix if fully tuned up after a break.
 Bois Guillbert 7 11-9	L Russell & M Scudamore	Patrick Wadge	50-1	110	69	116
Three-time hurdle winner who has dropped to a mark 5lb lower than when winning on his chase debut last February; he may stage a revival at some stage but has struggled over fences/hurdles on his three runs this season.
 Joeybottles 5 11-8t	O Greenall & J Guerriero	Toby Wynne	3-1	109	100	117
Ran well in a bumper here last April on debut (good to soft) and, having had wind surgery, he made a winning handicap debut at 9-2 at Bangor (2m3f, good) last month; did it easily and a 10lb rise may not stop him.
 La Vish 5 11-7	S Hollinshead	Paul O'Brien	16-1	108	106	114
He was the 20-1 outsider of three when winning a novice at Warwick (2m5f, good) four weeks ago on his third hurdle start; this 5yo handicap newcomer is unexposed but the strength of that latest form is questionable given the heavily odds-on favourite severely underperformed.
 Bel Ombre 6 11-7t	N Mulholland	Conor O'Farrell	4-1	108	89	116
Well backed into 85-40 when winning by 3l on handicap debut at Taunton (2m3f, good to soft) in January; 10lb higher for this first run since but the form has worked out well and he could have plenty more left in the tank.
 Platin Moon 5 11-3	N Alexander	Bruce Lynn	6-1	104	112	117
Front-runner who won at Ayr (2m, heavy) in January before solid third at Musselburgh (1m7f, good to soft), and he won again at Ayr (2m, soft) last month; further improvement is necessary today, but possible.
 Largy Meadow 6 10-11t	R Mike Smith	Danny McMenamin	12-1	98	83	112
Improved form when 16-1 runner-up at Newcastle (2m4f, good) 12 days ago on second handicap start; needs to back up that latest performance but he's unexposed on good ground and drying conditions would aid his cause.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT The step up in trip looks set to be a good move for the Paul Nicholls-trained A KING OF MAGIC and he can make a winning handicap debut. Joeybottles impressed at Bangor last month and is feared most ahead of Bel Ombre, who is also 1-1 in handicaps. [Ben Hutton]

	Promising over hurdles last season and he's well handicapped on his chase form from the end of last year; however, he's finished down the field over fences/hurdles on his last two starts; blinkers replace cheekpieces.
	Stoner's Choice 11 12-1tp	F O'Brien	Tom Broughton (5)	8-1	116	104	119
	Course winner whose mark continues to fall and he's not been devoid of spark this season; however, this 11yo is without a win since April 2023 and was disappointing at Ludlow last month.
	Timefortom 6 11-11	L Russell & M Scudamore	Alan Doyle (3)	9-2	112	64	111
	Point winner who was runner-up this season on his first two hurdle starts (2m5f/2m4f, good/soft); pulled up at Newcastle (2m4f, good to soft) in January but has had a break since and he has potential off his opening mark if tapping back into his earlier promise.
	Letterston Lily 6 11-11	M Bowen	James Bowen	8-1	112	101	114
	This is her first run since November 2024 and she needs to prove how much ability she retains; however, this lightly raced 6yo is on a competitive judged on her handicap form in autumn 2024 and it will be interesting to see how she goes in the betting on her return to action.
	Lets Mingle 6 11-8	L Russell & M Scudamore	Jack Power (5)	11-1	109	102	117
	Won C&D maiden (good) last May and runner-up on handicap debut at Kelso (2m6f, good) in October; below par on her next two runs but one was over 3m and the latest was on heavy going; this trip on drying ground could prove ideal and she's a possible contender.
	Buy Some Time 8 11-7ht	R Mike Smith	Ryan Mania	14-1	108	105	117
	Soundly beaten at Kelso three weeks ago but may have needed that first run since last July; won a big-field handicap at 50-1 at Punchestown (2m3f, yielding) last April and is on a handy mark on that form; not ruled out.
	Heard That 7 11-7	O Murphy	Aidan Weaver (7)	13-2	108	100	115
	Won off 7lb higher over fences here (3m, good to soft) last April; 0-9 over hurdles but runner-up in this discipline at Southwell (2m4f, good) last month; one of two for trainer with a good record in the race; chance.
	Soldier's Leap 6 11-5t	T Ellis	Miss Gina Andrews	7-2	106	102	115
	Won two in a row in the autumn (2m2f/2m, good to soft/soft) and, after a couple of respectable fifth placings, he was a close second at Stratford (2m2f, good) last month; in the mix if seeing out this longer trip; the hood worn on his last four starts is left off.
	Karton Plein 6 11-2	O Murphy	Sean Bowen	11-2	103	103	118
	Won a maiden hurdle at Southwell (2m, good to soft) last February and he returned to form when third at Lingfield (2m3f, soft) in January; pulled up at Southwell (2m4f, good) since but not written off for a trainer who has a good recent record in this race; one of two for the yard.
	So Many Roads 9 10-8t	D Whillans	Theo Gillard	12-1	95	115	117
	Won at Ayr (2m4f, soft) in January and again ran well when fourth of 14 at Hexham (2m4f, soft) last month; those were Class 5 contests and this 9yo is back up in grade today, but is not ruled out each-way.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT The novice TIMEFORTOM has had a break since being pulled up at Newcastle and could be on a good mark for this handicap debut in view of his previous promise. Heard That has run well on both previous visits to Perth and may be the chief danger ahead of Letterston Lily, who returns from a long absence but is on a competitive mark. Soldier's Leap could be involved if the step up in trip isn't an issue.[Ben Hutton]

11yo who snapped a losing sequence at Carlisle (3m, good to soft) last month and it was a stronger race than this in which he was fourth of 11 at Haydock (2m4f, good) last Wednesday; every chance he'll be in the mix.
	Slanagaibhgoleir 8 11-1p	G Elliott (IRE)	Harry Cobden	11-4	131	137	145
Won at Down Royal (2m4f, good to yielding) in December and ran well in defeat on next two starts (2m3f/2m4f, heavy/good to yielding) prior to failing to stay 3m4f in the Ulster National at Downpatrick; could play a leading role back down in trip.
	Whistleinthedark 11 11-0v ¹	L Morgan	Miss Ellie Callwood (7)	25-1	130	142	151
11yo who was tailed off at Cheltenham in December and pulled up at Haydock this month on sole run since; arrives with something to prove but three visits to Perth have yielded two wins, including this race in 2023, so he's worth a second look; a first-time visor replaces cheekpieces.
	Classic Maestro 8 10-13p	J Candlish	Luke Scott (3)	15-2	129	126	150
Good second at Sandown (1m7f, soft) in January and ran well before fading into 14 third at Ayr (2m4f, soft) last month; however, his best form has come on soft/heavy ground and such conditions seem unlikely today.
	King Roly 7 10-8t	M Bowen	James Bowen	13-2	124	140	150
Made a good start to his chasing career last year, winning three times between May and September (2m3f/2m4f, good), with two of them over C&D; ran well for a long way over C&D yesterday, following some time off, but finished soundly beaten and needs to take a sizeable step forward just one day on.
	Toothless 8 10-7tp	P Nicholls	Freddie Gingell	3-1	123	142	149
Won at Windsor (2m4f, good) on New Year's Day on second start back from an absence and runner-up to progressive winners on next two starts (2m4f, soft); could still have more to offer himself and he's high on the list.
	Inox Allen 8 10-7tp ¹	L Russell & M Scudamore	Alan Doyle (3)	9-1	123	116	154
Easily made all in first-time visor over C&D (good to soft) last April; hard to fancy on his three runs this term but, given his previous reaction to new headgear, it's possible cheekpieces will garner a positive response.
	Westerninthepark 8 10-5	O Murphy	Sean Bowen	15-2	121	139	153
Disappointing on his last few starts and a major turnaround is necessary; however, he's dropped to a dangerous mark and his trainer has an excellent strike-rate at Perth; no surprise if he bounces back.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Having continued in good form since winning at Windsor on New Year's Day, TOOTHLESS can get back on the scoresheet this afternoon. Slanagaibhgoleir has run some solid races during this first chasing campaign and is feared most back down in trip, ahead of the veteran Tommy's Oscar who drops back down in grade.[Ben Hutton]

Smart novice over fences for Gordon Elliott; not quite as good these days but fair third at Newbury in November (2m4f, good to soft) on latest chase start; now 5lb lower and, following a decent run over hurdles last time, is worth considering.
	Minella Drama 11 12-2t	D McCain	Theo Gillard	9-1	142	150	146
Very useful chaser at his best, last win coming in the 2024 Old Roan Chase at Aintree (2m4f, good); highly tried this term, best run when second in a Listed chase at Kelso in February (2m7f, good to soft); on a fair mark now.
	Statuario 11 11-3	M Bowen	James Bowen	100-30	129	129	145
Six-time course winner who was runner-up in this race last year (good to soft); has since gained two C&D wins on good ground, latest in September; has plenty going for him; leading contender.
	Della Casa Lunga 8 11-1tp	C Boulton-Brooks	Ned Fox (3)	13-2	127	87	143
Mainly in fair form this season and can be forgiven a below-par run on testing ground at Exeter last time; these conditions suit; each-way chance with cheekpieces back on.

	Mountain Mike 7 10-5	Dr R Newland & J Insole	Luke Scott (3)	3-1	117	112	146
Won a maiden hurdle at Ffos Las in February 2025 (2m6f, heavy); two fair runs over fences this term (fell at the fourth last time) but taking on stronger company here.
	Ned Tanner 10 10-2tp	N Alexander	Sean Quinlan	12-1	114	121	145
Dual winner over 2m4f on soft ground last season; has been rather inconsistent since wind surgery this term; has won over this trip, but perhaps better at shorter and has no easy task from 3lb out of the handicap.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT American Mike has dropped to a good mark and is well worth considering, but last year's runner-up STATUARIO is taken to win his seventh race here.[Colin Russell]

	Adonedeal 6 12-0	O Murphy	James Bowen	12-1	118	100	117
Irish point winner in May 2025 (3m, good to firm); won first two starts over hurdles, but a bit to prove after a poor run on handicap debut last time at Stratford.
	A Different Kind 9 12-0t	D McCain	Theo Gillard	10-1	118	88	120
Hasn't won since scoring over fences here in September 2023 (2m4f, soft; 2-7 favourite); decent run after a wind up when second to a subsequent winner in a 2m handicap hurdle at Doncaster last time; chance on that form.
	Mister Ursus 5 11-11h	O Murphy	Sean Bowen	7-2	115	117	120
Confirmed previous promise over hurdles when an easy winner of a maiden at Fakenham last time; stiffer task here but looks the stable's number one and he's a possible player.
	How About No 6 11-11p ¹	E Quinlan	Sean Quinlan	25-1	115	100	117
Won a Catterick novice hurdle in January 2025 (1m7f, soft); was then off for 305 days and hasn't run quite as well since; cheekpieces now tried.
	The Hatchet 6 11-11t ¹	L Russell & M Scudamore	Jack Power (5)	8-1	115	103	117
Winner of a C&D novice hurdle in September (good to soft); mainly fair form since, although only third of four at 1-2 in a Newcastle handicap last time (2m1f, good to soft); tongue-tie now tried; each-way chance.
	Winds Of Winter 8 11-9	G Bewley	Jonathon Bewley	14-1	113	109	117
Progressed well after winning a Cartmel seller last May (2m1f, good to soft) with two wins and two seconds, one of them over this C&D, and went up 25lb; hasn't been out since being pulled up at Hexham in October; interesting if fully wound up after her winter break.
	Magnolia 7 11-8tp	M D Hammond	Joshua Thompson (5)	33-1	112	99	119
Runner-up in the 2m4f mares' handicap here last April when rated 13lb lower; won twice over 2m at Kelso in the autumn (good/soft) but hasn't done as well since; bit to prove now.
	Pure Gold 6 11-5	Miss L Harrison	Peter Kavanagh	20-1	109	99	118
Has won three races this season, the second over this C&D in September; up in the ratings and off since November; may be better for the run.
	Someone's Wish 6 11-4b	G Elliott (IRE)	Harry Cobden	12-1	108	84	115
Dual AW Flat winner who has won a chase and a handicap hurdle at Downpatrick since joining Gordon Elliott; hasn't been at his best since winning over hurdles in October (2m1f, yielding); stable has a fine record here.
	Just Dottie 8 11-2	R Mike Smith	William Maggs (3)	14-1	106	97	120
Easy winner off a 10lb lower mark after a break at this meeting last year (fifth over 2m here in April 2024); won another race over C&D off a pound lower than here in May (good) and also on the Flat at Ayr in September (soft); interesting.
	Scriabin 6 11-1t	L Russell & M Scudamore	Patrick Wadge	8-1	105	109	118
Ex-Irish; 11-race maiden over hurdles; placed in two of his three runs for current yard, last time finishing runner-up to a subsequent easy winner in a maiden hurdle at Musselburgh (2m1f, good to soft); interesting.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT

A tricky race, featuring plenty of unexposed sorts, can go to the progressive FOURONEOHFEVER, who was useful on the Flat and got off the mark over hurdles in a Ludlow handicap last time. He is 9lb higher here and is just preferred to the unexposed Fakenham winner Mister Ursus and the 9yo A Different Kind, who was a good second at Doncaster last time.[Colin Russell]

	Storm The Dug 4 10-12	L Russell & M Scudamore	Patrick Wadge	9-1	92	62	93
4yo who is yet to threaten across his three hurdle starts but last time was better and he has potential off his opening jumps mark based on the ability he has shown on the Flat; could be involved.
	Malangen 11 10-12	Miss L Harrison	Peter Kavanagh	20-1	84	101	101
11yo who struggled on his last three starts last autumn; however, he won off this mark at Market Rasen (2m4f, good) last July and is a four-time winner at Perth; not ruled out on his return to action.
	Bunker Bay 7 10-10tp	M D Hammond	Miss Becky Smith	11-2	82	86	104
0-8 over hurdles but has posted some good performances this season, most recently runner-up at Market Rasen (2m, good) 18 days ago; also effective on soft ground; makes a lot more appeal than most of these.
	Gone With The Tide 7 10-7p ¹	Alison Hamilton	Joe Williamson	100-1	79	-	-
Ran a couple of reasonable races towards the end of last season and he's dropped down the weights; however, he's been pulled up on all three starts this term; transformation needed in first-time cheekpieces.
	Breadalbane Lass 6 10-2tp	R Mike Smith	Toby Wynne	10-1	74	87	96
Remains a maiden after 12 starts but she ran well when fourth at Carlisle (2m1f, good to soft) last month and could get closer to the target today if staying straight (hung badly left on the run-in last time).

Defying Gravity 6 10-2t

A Hamilton

Conor Rabbitt (3)

11-1 74 88 102

Made his handicap debut at Newcastle (2m1f, good to soft) last month following wind surgery and a break and ran pretty well in fifth of 13, beaten 8l; races off the same mark today and could be an each-way contender.

Bray Dale 9 10-2v¹

C Bissett

William Maggs (3)

100-1 74 67 95

Third on handicap debut at Ayr (2m, soft) last March but this season has been a struggle; 3lb wrong today; visor replaces cheekpieces.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT This isn't as competitive as the field size suggests and SHADOWFAX OF ROHAN (nap) can make a winning return to hurdles off the same mark as for last month's chase win at Southwell. Recent Market Rasen runner-up Bunker Bay is second choice ahead of Beat The Retreat, who has won two of his last three.[Ben Hutton]

	Casual Observer 7 12-0	H Derham	Toby McCain-Mitchell	11-4	110	89	114
Winning hurdler (2m4f, heavy) who has shown promise in defeat over 2m4f on his two chase starts (soft); now steps up to 3m for first time under rules (was second in a 3m point).
	Lady In The Park 8 11-13v ¹	L Russell & M Scudamore	Jack Power	14-1	109	87	118
Won this race in first-time blinkers off a pound lower mark 12 months ago (good to soft); hasn't run quite as well in three starts this season and now tried in a visor; a possible.
	Loulou Madrik 5 11-11tp ¹	M Walford	Tom Midgley	4-1	109	63	116
Yet to win a race; shaped with plenty of promise when second on chase debut at Carlisle earlier this month (3m, good); has shown fair form on soft ground; interesting with tongue-tie now tried.
	William Of York 10 11-9tp	R Menzies	William Maggs	20-1	105	62	114
Hat-trick of wins over fences on last three starts two seasons ago (2m3f-2m5f, good to soft-heavy); hasn't run anything like as well since and although 13lb lower than last winning mark, has plenty to prove at present.
	Inis Oirr 9 11-6p	L Russell & M Scudamore	Gregor Walkingshaw (10)	20-1	102	108	121
Both wins have been at Musselburgh, latest a 3m7f handicap chase in February 2024 (good to soft); struggled to win since, but is well handicapped.
	Sir Carnegie 6 10-12p	M Bowen	Shane Fenelon	10-1	94	107	113
Won novice handicaps over this trip at Newcastle (good) and Kelso (good to soft) earlier in the season; not in quite such good form since but excuses for heavy defeat at Newcastle last time (bad mistake five out); not out of it.
	Uptown Harry 12 10-10v	Mrs J Walton	Charlie Maggs	7-1	92	109	114
Veteran; C&D winner in 2021; having a good season, winning at Newcastle in January (2m7f, good to soft) and in the frame on his three runs since, last time when 9lb wrong; runs off his true mark here; could go well.
	Burgundy Man 9 10-9	R Mike Smith	Tom Broughton	15-2	91	106	113
Made a winning debut over fences over C&D in October (soft); bit disappointing when returning from a break when well beaten at Kelso last time (2m5f, good) but should come on for the run.
	Nights In Venice 10 10-8t	D Whillans	Murray Dodd (3)	9-2	90	99	120
Both wins have been at Ayr, latest over 3m in March (soft); not disgraced down in trip last time; one to consider.
	Jakana 7 10-6	L Kerr	Conor Rabbitt	66-1	88	-	-
Won twice over hurdles for Fergal O'Brien last season; has fared less well for new yard and, having been pulled up wearing headgear on last three starts, has plenty to prove on her chase debut (no headgear this time).
	Jirko 7 10-4p	N Alexander	Dominic Hislop (10)	11-1	86	105	121
11-race maiden; placed on all five starts over fences this term, although was disappointing when last of three with cheekpieces tried at Ayr last time (2m4f, soft; didn't jump well); headgear retained; each-way chance.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT There is no standout candidate in this staying chase in which the veteran C&D winner UPTOWN HARRY is taken to give another good account having been in decent form this season. Loulou Madrik and Sir Carnegie are two others who should go well.[Colin Russell]
