	Underwriter 3 9-9	A Watson	Jamie Spencer	10-1	91	75	93
Won maiden/novice races at Ayr (6f, good to firm/good) last season on two of his first three starts; came up short in Group/sales races otherwise but reappears having been gelded and he could prove well suited by this first crack at 5f; interesting on handicap debut, especially if backed.
	Calico Blue 3 9-9	R Varian	Ray Dawson	11-4	91	80	94
Won at Chester (6f, good) last June on second start and comfortably followed up in novice there (6f, good) the following month; absent since and this handicap debut is a much tougher test of his credentials, but he's a bright prospect and it remains to be seen where his limitations lie.
	Sir Alfie 3 9-8	Charlie Pike	Thomas Greatrex	50-1	90	78	91
Two wins last summer for Ger Lyons but down the field in Listed races last autumn on both starts for Charles Byrnes and soundly beaten in a handicap at Newmarket last Thursday on his stable/seasonal debut; others preferred.
	Atticum 3 9-6	R Cowell	Marco Ghiani	7-1	88	73	98
Built upon last September's debut (5f, AW) to go close at Nottingham (5f, good to soft), then went one better at Yarmouth (5f, good to soft) in October when last seen; he could do with breaking more professionally but he impressed last time and could have plenty more to offer; yard in good form.
	Black Star Boy 3 9-6	E Walker	Kieran Shoemark	4-1	88	76	90
Won with something to spare at Newbury (6f, good to soft) last September on second start then pulled hard when mid-division in Listed race at York (6f, good); gelded since, which may settle him down, and this well-bred sort has potential off his opening mark.
	Old Is Gold 3 9-5	A Balding	James Doyle	9-2	87	85	96
Midfield in big-field nursery at York's Ebor meeting (6f, good to firm) last August when last seen; gelded since; however, close third in a nursery at Glorious Goodwood (6f, good to soft) previously, showing good pace, and he's in the picture on that form; also effective on good/good to firm.
	Hypnotised 3 9-0	H Charlton	Colin Keane	9-2	82	53	95
Built upon the promise of his first two starts (6f, good/AW) when readily winning a Southwell maiden (5f, AW) at odds-on last September; his attractive pedigree provides optimism that he can take higher order still.
	Ambishio 3 8-12	M Appleby	Robert Havlin	9-1	80	81	95
0-5 last year, all on turf, but he showed promise and won a handicap at Southwell (5f, AW) in January on his first run since being gelded; close second at Southwell (5f, AW) a fortnight ago and could be thereabouts if the return to grass isn't an issue.
	One And Gone 3 8-11	I Williams	Edward Greatrex	20-1	79	63	97
Runner-up on debut at Ripon (6f, good) last August and won Kempton novice (6f, AW) in November on fourth start; some good AW handicap efforts since but not last time and he's probably vulnerable against unexposed types.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Having been headstrong last year, a gelding operation may be a positive for BLACK STAR BOY who showed considerable promise when winning a maiden at Newbury last September. He earns the vote ahead of Atticum, who impressed at Yarmouth last October and returns with his yard in good form. The well-bred Hypnotised is third choice, while the in-form Ambishio could go well once more.[Ben Hutton]

	Goodwood Galaxy 3 9-9	D Menuisier	David Probert	20-1	100	75	105
Won on debut at Salisbury (7f, good to firm) last June and kept on for fourth in Group 2 Vintage Stakes at Goodwood (7f, good) next time; ran okay in quality conditions race at Newbury (1m, good to soft) in September when last seen but he needs to prove he can cut it off this lofty mark.
	Look To The Stars 3 9-6w h ¹	C Appleby	William Buick	13-2	97	89	104
Won Kempton novice (7f, AW) last September on third start and followed up in warm conditions race at Newbury (1m, good to soft); failed to settle and didn't stay 1m2f in Group 3 Zetland Stakes at Newmarket last seen; wind op since and the hood could be a positive on reappearance; chance.
	Organise 3 9-6	J & T Gosden	James Doyle	11-10	97	66	106
Impressive on debut at Southwell (7f, AW) last November and made it 2-2 in Yarmouth novice (1m, good) on recent reappearance; his inexperience was still evident last time and this well-bred colt could have lots more left in the tank for last year's winning yard; key player on handicap debut.
	Suspended Sentence 3 9-3	Michael Bell	Hector Crouch	33-1	94	85	102
Won Ripon novice (1m, good to firm) last August on third start then followed up in four-runner nursery over this C&D (soft); creditable Listed fourth in France (1m, soft) in September but returns to a handicap off a mark 13lb higher than for his course win; further improvement needed.
	Laureate Crown 3 9-2	H Palmer	Oisin Murphy	7-1	93	87	109
Didn't really kick on last year after winning at Ascot (7f, good to firm) on debut but he reappeared at Wolverhampton (8.6f, AW) last month having been gelded and defied a slow start to win by half a length; it was a small field but the clear runner-up finished second in a good handicap at Newmarket subsequently and this fellow may well be in the mix up 6lb.
	Capall Rasa 3 9-1	T Dascombe	Billy Loughnane	12-1	92	25	106
Improved upon first two runs (both on turf) to win at Southwell (7f, AW) last October, and followed up on handicap debut there (1m, AW); had just three rivals to beat last time and he's 12lb higher today with something to prove on turf, but is not discounted given the ease of that last win.
	Nobody Knows 3 8-12	R Hughes	Ryan Moore	11-4	89	53	104
Well-backed winner at Ayr (7f, soft) last September on sole 2yo start and made it 2-2 in Wolverhampton novice (8.6f, AW) last month, again doing it cosily; has potential off his opening mark and the booking of Ryan Moore is a bonus.
	Breathe Easy 3 8-5	A Balding	NON-RUNNER	82	-	-	-
All four starts on AW; won at Kempton (7f) in January on third run and narrowly followed up in four-runner handicap at Southwell (1m); further improvement is necessary but he's in good hands to continue to progress.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT The Gosden stable won this last year with Fifth Column, who won a further two handicaps later in the season, and the yard's unbeaten and well-bred Organise is a leading contender on his handicap debut. However, NOBODY KNOWS also arrives 2-2 and has shaped as though he could well be superior to his opening mark. Laureate Crown is third choice with last month's win at Wolverhampton having been franked by the clear runner-up.[Ben Hutton]

	Almeric 4 9-2	A Balding	Oisín Murphy	6-4	117	115	133
Record is 3-5; has gained all wins, including two Listed races, in his starts on softer than good but may yet show that he's fully effective on faster ground; drops back in class having been comfortably held in the Champion Stakes; top on the figures and he was progressive before that latest start.
	Devil's Advocate 4 9-2p	J & T Gosden	William Buick	7-2	112	113	125
Highlight last season was a very useful performance in 1m2f handicap at Doncaster, suggesting he's verging on Group class; creditable second, despite usual cheekpieces being removed, in AW Listed event at Kempton on reappearance; possibilities with the headgear back on.
	King Of Cities 4 9-2	K Burke	Ryan Moore	3-1	110	113	126
Formerly trained by Richard Hannon but remained with same owner; produced his best performance in most recent domestic start, namely a narrow success in Group 3 at last year's Ebor festival at York (1m1f, good to firm); may have more to offer this term; respected.
	Saddadd 4 9-2	R Varian	Ray Dawson	4-1	107	112	127
Beaten favourite in Listed race at Goodwood on last appearance but was far from disgraced, especially as he could have done with a stronger pace; progressive otherwise and landed a notable handicap at Newbury (good to firm) prior to following up over C&D (soft); remains of major interest.
	Muddy Mooy 5 8-13	Charlie Pike	Edward Greatrex	25-1	100	94	119
Has gained both wins on AW and she did well to finish third, in difficult circumstances, at Kempton (1m2f Listed) on reappearance; ties in with Devil's Advocate on that bare form but isn't guaranteed to find the required further improvement back on turf.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Almeric holds leading claims, assuming the ground is okay. However, KING OF CITIES is an interesting alternative on his debut for Karl Burke, while Saddadd (second pick) is another 4yo colt who could still have further progress in him and Devil's Advocate is also in the mix.[Steve Boow]

	Cicero's Gift 6 9-8	C Hills	Jason Watson	20-1	119	113	127
Dual C&D winner who finished third in this race last year; returns to Sandown but may be flattered by his new rating, having been perhaps helped by the draw when registering a 100-1 success in the Group 1 QEII at Ascot (good) on last appearance; needs to prove he can back up that form.
	Opera Ballo 4 9-8h	C Appleby	William Buick	8-1	119	118	127
Progressive colt who readily bagged Group 1 honours at Meydan (1m1f, good) three months ago, taking record to 6-8; however, appears to need further improvement to defy 5lb penalty and was no match for Zeus Olympios in last domestic outing.
	Zeus Olympios 4 9-6	K Burke	Ryan Moore	9-4	120	91	129
Highly progressive in his first campaign last year and still unbeaten (4-4); won going away from Opera Ballo in Group 2 at Newmarket (1m, good to firm) on final start; remains one to follow and has the makings of a Group 1 colt this term; commands respect.
	Dancing Gemini 5 9-3	R Teal	Rossa Ryan	12-1	118	115	132
Below best in three of his last four outings in 2025 but commenced the campaign splendidly, winning twice (including in this race) then going close in the Group 1 Lockinge; while today may be a good time to catch him, he faces a slightly stiffer assignment in this field.
	Field Of Gold 4 9-3	J & T Gosden	Colin Keane	11-10	125	123	139
Very progressive until having plausible excuses in the Sussex Stakes (found to be lame) and QEII (draw to some extent) in last two appearances; impressive wins in the Irish 2,000 Guineas and St James's Palace Stakes make him the one to beat, provided he's back in similar form.
	Never So Brave 5 9-3	A Balding	Oisin Murphy	13-2	116	119	131
Did very well (3-5) last season for new stable, completing a notable summer hat-trick (7f/1m, good to firm) that culminated in Group 1 success at York; not disgraced from unfavourable draw in the QEII on final outing; may rate higher still and looks likely to go well.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Field Of Gold looked outstanding on two occasions last year and sets a tall standard assuming he's back in similar form. Either way ZEUS OLYMPIOS is a strong opponent who is still unbeaten, still on the up and certainly a plausible punting alternative. Never So Brave is third pick.[Steve Boow]

Closely related to last year's Derby winner Lambourn and has his own Epsom aspirations, having ended a progressive 2yo campaign with close second to one of his stablemates in the Group 1 Futurity at Doncaster (1m, heavy); now goes in tongue-tie; the pick on the figures and may well rate higher still.
 Al Zanati 3 9-3	C Appleby	William Buick	9-1	106	95	114
Dubawi colt who got up in the final strides to win 1m1f AW Group 3 at Chantilly on final 2yo start, taking record to 2-3; looks likely to be well suited by going up further in distance; doesn't have a Derby entry but further progress may materialise.
 Oceans Four 3 9-3	B Meehan	Joe Leavy	20-1	106	107	117
Narrowly bagged Group 3 honours at Chantilly (1m, soft) in September when last seen but still needs to prove he can repeat the clear peak form he appeared to show when going close at 25-1 in an exciting Solario at Sandown; gelding who has no major entries in the future.
 Raaheeb 3 9-3	O Burrows	Rossa Ryan	7-2	-	82	105
Smartly bred, being a brother to Baaeed and Hukum; duly showed strong promise in justifying favouritism at Ascot (7f, soft) in sole 2yo outing; held a Royal Lodge entry at the time and currently holds three major entries, including the Derby; should be suited by middle distances; bright prospect.
 Spyce 3 9-3	A King	Tom Marquand	14-1	100	96	108
Eye-catching second in the Convivial Maiden at York then went one better at Yarmouth and ran well in Group 3 at Newmarket (1m2f, good to firm) upped further in trip; developing into a useful Flat performer for his esteemed dual-purpose trainer.
 Winding Stream 3 9-3	R Hughes	Oisin Murphy	33-1	85	-	96
Both starts on AW, scoring comfortably at Southwell (7f) as a 2yo then running well under a penalty at Kempton (1m); holds a Derby entry and may be suited by going up further in distance today but faces a stiff task at this level; bottom on bare figures.
 Wise Prince 3 9-3	J & T Gosden	Robert Havlin	5-2	-	43	104
Ghaiyyath colt whose two major entries include the Derby; scored comfortably at Nottingham (1m, good to soft) in sole 2yo start, looking the type who'll be suited by middle distances and could develop into a Group performer this year; interesting contender.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT As is often the case in a Classic trial, the dilemma is whether to side with form or potential. The latter is represented by the very interesting prospects RAAHEEB (narrowly preferred) and Wise Prince, while Futurity runner-up Action sets the standard and isn't opposed with absolute confidence.[Steve Boow]

Oaks entry who won well at Lingfield (1m, AW) in sole 2yo start and looks open to progress this term; faces fairly deep opposition but defying a 6lb penalty is not out of the question.
	Ribbon Of Sea 3 9-8	C Appleby	William Buick	5-2	-	17	89
Justified favouritism at Wolverhampton (9.5f, AW) on reappearance and is the type to rate higher still, being a Sea The Stars filly who cost 1,600,000gns as a yearling; respected.
	Alma Latina 3 9-2	R Beckett	Hector Crouch	20-1	-	-	-
Debutante by Study Of Man out of a 1m2f winner (including Listed; RPR 105) for her connections; interesting, especially if the market speaks favourably.
	Bintsaleh 3 9-2	W Haggas	Tom Marquand	12-1	-	53	87
Dubawi filly who cost 925,000gns as a yearling and holds an Oaks entry; both starts at Yarmouth, better effort when third upped to 1m2f latest; possibilities with another step forward likely.
	Corallience 3 9-2	D Menuisier	Ray Dawson	33-1	-	44	74
May do better in due course but is perhaps one for handicaps later on; bottom of this pack judged on her 2yo effort at Newbury (1m, soft).
	Ladykirk 3 9-2	Jane Chapple-Hyam	Rossa Ryan	12-1	-	65	84
Oaks entry who showed plenty of promise at Yarmouth (1m, good to soft) six months ago, beating all bar the market leader and faring best of the newcomers; enters the reckoning.
	Palomezcal 3 9-2	D Menuisier	Robert Havlin	40-1	-	-	-
70,000gns yearling; Space Blues half-sister to five winners, notably California Dreamer (1m AW; Irish 1,000 Guineas runner-up; RPR 110); dam German Oaks winner; check the betting.
	Ruby Wedding 3 9-2	A Balding	David Probert	14-1	-	50	81

	Sullom Voe 3 9-2	D Menuisier	Jason Watson	50-1	-	-	-
110,000euros yearling; New Bay half-sister to five winners, notably Patrick Sarsfield (1m-1m2f including Group 3; RPR 114); one of two newcomers for her stable; market instructive.
	Sunshine Star 3 9-2	J & T Gosden	Oisin Murphy	11-10	-	-	92
Entered in the Oaks, which her half-sister Soul Sister won for her connections in 2023; close second and clear of remainder at Kempton (1m, AW) in sole 2yo run, faring best of the newcomers; a winner waiting to happen and her yard has a good record in this race.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Several of these fillies are entered in the Oaks and/or have potential. The signs look particularly good for SUNSHINE STAR who is first choice ahead of similar type Ladykirk. Godolphin runner Ribbon Of Sea may be only third choice but she commands respect, as do a couple of the others. Alma Latina may prove best of the newcomers.[Steve Boow]

Runner-up to exciting prospect at Kempton (1m, AW) in December on third and final 2yo start and returned to action with 4l win in Bath novice (1m2f, good) this month; likeable prospect who is respected on handicap debut.
	Lost Boys 3 9-8	D Menuisier	Hector Crouch	9-4	83	64	90
Promising third last year on first two starts (1m, good/soft) then won Haydock maiden (1m, good to soft) in September; his dam was a 1m2f/1m4f winner and it seems likely that he'll improve for this step up in trip on handicap/seasonal debut; trainer won this in 2024.
	Into The Light 3 9-8	C Appleby	William Buick	100-30	83	-	93
Defied inexperience to win on debut at Lingfield (1m2f, AW) in February and again ran well when 3l second to a newcomer at Southwell (1m4f, AW) last month; his dam was a Listed winner and he could prove to be on an advantageous mark for his first handicap start.
	Magic Trip 3 9-7	A Balding	Jason Watson	100-30	82	20	92
Won on debut at Bath (1m, good to soft) last September before 8l last of eight in Italian Group 3 (7.5f, good); reappeared with strong finish for third in Kempton novice (1m, AW) this month and his pedigree also suggests he'll relish the extra yardage today; firmly in calculations.
	The Joker 3 9-5	Jane Chapple-Hyam	Rossa Ryan	12-1	80	87	87
Best of his four 2yo runs came when second here (7f, soft) in August, and he also showed promise on fast ground; bred to be suited by the step up in trip but he was headstrong on occasions last year, which is a concern, and improvement is needed off his opening mark.
	Bnaider 3 9-1	H Charlton	Oisin Murphy	11-2	76	88	90
Took a step forward when up in trip and third at Newbury (1m, soft) last October on his third start; ran well on good ground on debut; there's stamina in his pedigree and he's a possible improver on this first handicap start.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT All of these are open to improvement but MAGIC TRIP (nap) looked a good prospect for this sort of distance when keeping on well for third over 1m at Kempton this month, and he's taken to make a winning handicap debut. The extra yardage should also suit Lost Boy who is second choice ahead of Godolphin colt Into The Light. [Ben Hutton]
