Betting forecast: 13/8 Alondra, 2/1 El Bufalo, 4/1 Lion's House, 13/2 Gogo Yubari, 9/1 Cressida Wildes.

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Four of the runners met in a C&D contest on Friday, with Alondra faring best. She commands respect in her bid for a quickfire hat-trick, while El Bufalo seems set for another big run. From a different line of form, LION'S HOUSE looks a plausible alternative, being a last-time scorer who remains well handicapped on historical data.[Steve Boow]

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT The most solid option is BAD HABITS who, accordingly, is taken to double his tally. Nammos, who looks interesting assuming she takes to the visor, is second pick ahead of Oldbury Lad whose new mark seems manageable provided the form of his classified win is confirmed.[Steve Boow]

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Another silver medal may await Lovethiswayagain, with twice-raced PEROLA open to progress back on AW. Arishka's Dream, the only other runner with experience, has a solid chance. The market may offer extra guidance as regards the two newcomers.[Steve Boow]

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT Having nearly won a valuable contest at Lingfield when last seen on AW, THE FLYING SEAGULL (nap) is a particularly interesting contender off the same mark. Moonstone Boy, who looks sufficiently well handicapped to win races for his new yard, is second pick ahead of Papa Cocktail and Water Of Leith who filled the first two places in a C&D event 17 days ago.[Steve Boow]

SPOTLIGHT VERDICT A chance is taken on BRODIE'S BOY who is 0-17 in handicaps but looks reasonably interesting returned to this scenario, being well treated on his sound efforts over C&D in the autumn. In-form Hackney Diamonds is second choice, ahead of Little Miss India who may remain competitive in the retained hood.[Steve Boow]
